- 5957069 JACOB VAN RUISDAEL: Windmills and Water Mills. By Seymour Slive. A Dutch art expert explores Jacob van Ruisdael’s hauntingly beautiful and pioneering depictions of windmills and water wells, the latter of which he introduced into contemporary paintings. Writing with deep affection for his art, Slive brings Ruisdael’s greatest works to life. Well illus., most color. 112 pages. J. Paul Getty Museum. 8¼x8½. Pub. at $22.95 $7.95

- 6850537 JOHN STOCKWELL: Landscapes. This is the first full scale monograph of the artist’s work, much of which has never before been published outside of exhibition catalogs. The lavish reproductions featured in this volume emphasize his sense of color and use of texture and they approximate for the viewer the impact of the originals. 168 pages. Hudson Hills. 11½x11¼. Pub. at $50.00 $4.95

- 6849296 ADAM VAN DOREN. Ed. by Frances Bowles. The architectural watercolors of Van Doren are painted in the classical tradition, evoking history, and recall the work of earlier masters of the medium. Spanning a twenty year career of his work, this comprehensive volume highlights his lithographs as well as the more vernacular structures of Paris, Venice, Rome and New York. Fully illus. in color. 143 pages. Hudson Hills. 11¼x12. Pub. at $50.00 $9.95

- 5871294 JOSEPH URBAN. By John Larson. One of the most creative and prolific designers and architects of the early 20th century, this is a lavish celebration of the artist and his drawings, illustrations, paintings, renderings, and stage sets, nearly half of which have never been published. 223 pages. Abrams. 9¼x11¼. Pub. at $50.00 $9.95
