587766 ANGEL SONG, VOLUME ONE: A Glorious Collection of Heavenly Booties. Features angelic pin-ups that seem like the unseen guardians of our dreams. Most are pure by creation, but some of these winged miracles are tainted by the lower demons that tempt all. Showcased in one of old-fashioned spun-to their images. Mostly static portraits, but some action scenes. Some of the paintings contain more fantasy elements, while others are less elaborate. Adults only. 48 pages. SQP. 9x12. Paperbound. Pub. at $14.95.

576698 WOMAN AS DESIGN. By Stephen Bayley. Offers a completely original reappraisal of that most familiar, yet mysterious, of crafts, the ten-air art. An exodus of modern, cultural trends, erotic, fashion, fetishism, and sharp observation, is a modern study of the contentious conflict between the real and the ideal…in its most familiar form. Adults only. Fully Illus. in color. 336 pages. Conan Oct. 10/11°/Import. Pub. at $29.95.

575565 SEX AND HORROR: The Art of Alessandro Biffignandi. Between the 1960s and the early ’80s Italy went crazy for the “lunetti sex”, a genre of unmitigated terror, with about a hundred million and ignoring logical contradictions to create the sensation of twisted horror, violence, and/or, up-front sensuality. Alessandro Biffignandi was one of the most prolific lunetti cover artists, and this volume collects some of the sexiest and most provocative examples of his work. Adults only. Illus. in color. 160 pages. Koreen. 8½x11°/Import. Pub. at $32.95.

558305 LUST FOR THE DEVIL: The Erotic-Satanic Art of Felicin Rops. Ed. by Candice Black. Collects 80 artist’s contributions to that often neglected genre of 19th century. EXPOSED: VOYEURISM, SURVEILLANCE, AND THE CAMERA SINCE 1870. Ed. by Sandra S. Phillips. When does the impulse to watch cross the line from benign to monstrous? Who are the watchers today—amateurs who can now photograph with their smartphones and share in moments that are uniformly real? The desire to watch makes us human. While the activity itself is not new, the desire to capture an image became a compulsion to penetrate another’s private world. As the medium has evolved, the question of who is watching and who is being watched has become a primary ethical issue. This volume features photographs and essays from the Library’s rare book collection that illuminate the ethics of surveillance and the history of the photographic record from its invention to the early 20th century. 144 pages. Bodleian Library. 7 x 7 1/4. Import. Pub. at $25.00 $4.95
