6455298 AVA GARDNER: The Secret Conversations. With Peter Evans. Faithfully recording Ava's reminiscences in this book, Peter Evans describes their late-night conversations when Ava, after drinking and unable to sleep, was at her most candid. So candid, in fact, that when she read her own words, she halted the book. Only now could this memoir be published. Photos. 293 pages. S&S. Pub. at $26.00 $5.95

3561275 SALLY RIDE: America's First Woman in Space. By Lynn Sherr. Drawing from diaries, files, and letters, the author tells the incredible story of Sally Ride, the first American woman in space. Chronicling a life that intersected with revolutionary social and scientific changes in America, Sherr also sheds light on Ride's scrupulously guarded personal life. 24 pages of photos. 374 pages. S&S. Pub. at $28.00 $3.95

4523091 JOHN MARSHALL: The Chief Justice Who Saved the Nation. By Harlow Giles Unger. Reveals how Virginia-born John Marshall emerged from the Revolutionary War's bloodied battlefields to become one of the nation's most important Founding Fathers. America's greatest Chief of Justice, he transformed the Supreme Court from an irrelevant appeals court into a powerful branch of government. Illus. 374 pages. Da Capo. Pub. at $27.99 $7.95

7577821 THE GIRL: A Life in the Shadow of Roman Polanski. By Samantha Geimer et al. In this searing and surprising memoir, Geimer, “the girl” at the center of the infamous Roman Polanski sexual assault case, breaks a virtual thirty-five-year silence to tell her story and reflect on the events of that day and their lifelong repercussions. Photos. 265 pages. Atria. Pub. at $26.00 $4.95

5703913 BORN TO BE KING: Prince Charles on Planet Windsor. By Catherine Mayer. Prince Charles has spent his entire life preparing to be king while insisting on being his own man. Here he emerges as a complex character driven by a painful past, a questing intellect, and a king-in-waiting driven to reshape the monarchy while working toward high ideals. Photos, some color. 258 pages. Holt. Pub. at $28.00 $4.95

3667707 WHAT REALLY HAPPENED: John Edwards, Our Daughter, and Me. By Rielle Hunter. The author offers an extremely personal account to her relationship with John Edwards: the facts of how they actually met; how their accidental love started and escalated; what it was like to fall in love with a married man who decided to run for president; the surprise of becoming pregnant during the campaign; and more. Photos. 247 pages. BenBella. Pub. at $24.95 $4.95

782588X ALL IS GRACE. By Brennan Manning with J. Blase. On April 27, 1934, a little boy was born who grew up to become a vagabond evangelist in patchwork pants, fiercely daring us to believe a line too good to be true: God loves you as you are and not as you should be. Here Manning tells the story of his life—his failures and graces so many fear. Book Club Edition. Photos. 240 pages. David C Cook. $2.95

4542223 THE TIME OF MY LIFE: A Righteous Brother’s Memoir. By Bill Medley with M. Marino. Capturing the intersection of soul, R&B, and rock in the 1960s, Medley’s unforgettable memoir offers an unvarnished look at his personal triumphs and tragedies as one of the Righteous Brothers, extracted from five decades of musical, television, motion picture, and live performance success. 16 pages of photos. 228 pages. Da Capo. Pub. at $26.99 $6.95

5180372 LINCOLN’S BODY: A Cultural History. By Richard Wightman Fox. With commendable scholarship, rare insight, and engaging prose, Fox delivers a unique and monumental look at the physical appearance of America’s most beloved president, examining how a leader so ungainly in body and downright “ugly” in aspect came to mean so much to his people. Photos. 416 pages. Norton. Pub. at $28.95 $5.95
