4580737 LINCOLN’S BODY: A Cultural History. By Richard Wightman Fox. With commendable scholarship, rare insight, and engaging prose, Fox delivers a unique and monumental look at the physical appearance of America’s most beloved president, examining how a leader so ungainly in body and downright “ugly” in aspect came to mean so much to his people. Photos. 416 pages. Norton. Pub. at $28.95 $3.95

6817009 UPDIKE. By Adam Begley. In this eye-opening, authoritative biography, Begley offers a captivating portrait of John Updike, the author who saw himself as a literary spy in a small–town and suburban America, and who dedicated himself to the task of transcribing “middleness with all its grits, bumps, and embarrassments.” 16 pages of photos. 538 pages. Harper. Pub. at $29.99 $3.95

5906202 TRUMBO. By Bruce Cook. Dalton Trumbo was the central figure of the infamous “Hollywood Ten”: screenwriters who, before the McCarthy era, were charged by the House Committee on Un-American Activities for their associations with the Communist Party. Cook weaves a candid portrait of the Oscar–winner who broke the blacklist. 340 pages. Grand Central. Paperbound. Pub. at $15.99 $2.95

5951100 LIFE AND TIMES OF JESSE JAMES. By Frank Triplett. Reprints the classic work originally published in 1882.
