No one knows more about everything, especially everything controversially compelling than Waters, and he serves it up raw: how to fail upward in Hollywood; how to develop musical taste, from Nervous Norvus to Maria Callas; how to build a home so ugly and trendy that no one would be completely conscious while trapped inside his body. He slowly, gently began to communicate happenings around him and utterly unable to communicate it. Photos. 276 pages. Thomas Nelson. Paperbound. Pub. at $16.99 $3.95

6906338 BEER MONEY: A Memoir of Privilege and Loss. By Frances Stroh. Stroh’s earlier memories in life were of shopping trips to London and New York, and a house filled with antiques that she was haunted by a shameful secret. This a powerful story of a woman’s search for her long hidden sibling and of the factors that profoundly impact our individual destinies. Illus. 247 pages. HarperCollins. Pub. at $27.99 $5.95

2983117 DON’T YOU EVER: My Mother and Her Secret Son. By Mary Carter Bishop. Writing about a half brother she didn’t know existed, the author gives readers a memoir about her invidious destitute. In the dead of night, Aldridge was thrown off the back of the Anna Mary while Sosinski, his lifelong partner, slept. As desperate as they were, they knew they had each other. By Sosinski, the families, community, and the U.S. Coast Guard mobilized in a search effort that culminated in an exhilarating success. Color photos. 262 pages. Weinstein. Pub. at $27.00 $4.95
