684927 THE BOY KINGS OF TEXAS: A Memoir. By Domingo Martinez. Martinez provides a glimpse into a society where children are traded like commerce, physical alterations routinely solve problems, drugs are rampant, sex is often crude, and people depend on the family witch doctor for advice. He examines the traumas and pleasures of growing up in south Texas where different cultures collide. 444 pages. Paperback. Pub. at $16.95

2854074 MARY QUEEN OF SCOTS. By Roderick Graham. Mary Queen of Scots lived during one of the most fascinating periods in history. This work paints a unique picture of this controversial woman, showing her to be neither a Catholic martyr nor murdering adulteress, but rather a young woman out of her depth caught up in the sea of ruthless 16th century politics. $4.95

6943829 JIMMY BUFFETT: A Good Life All the Way. By Ryan White. The full story of Buffett’s rise from singing songs for beer to his emergence as a tropical icon and CEO behind Margaritaville industrial complex, a vast network of merchandise, chain restaurants, resorts, and lifestyle products all inspired by his ode to a lost way. 354 pages. Touchstone. Paperback. Pub. at $16.99

6521764 ETHAN ALLEN: His Life and Times. By Willard Sierre Randall. While Ethan Allen’s legend has endured through four centuries of American history, he remains the least understood of America’s founding fathers. Randall finally gives a vivid portrait to this venerated leader of the Green Mountain Boys, a man who was a mythical figure even in his own lifetime. 16 pages of photos. 617 pages. Norton. Pub. at $35.00

6906338 BEER MONEY: A Memoir of Privilege and Loss. By Frances Sloth. Sloth’s earlier memories in life were of shopping trips to London and New York, and a house filled with antiques that she was forbidden to touch. But when the Stroh Brewing Company crumbled, their wealth and legacy disappeared and the family fell apart. Frances shares her struggles on how she found her way out of the ruins. 314 pages. Harper Perennial. Paperbound. Pub. at $16.99
