THE SILENCED.

Directed by John Hodge, this film stars Oscar-nominated actress Noomi Rapace as a deaf woman who discovers she has the ability to speak.

Another film to watch is "The 13th Floor," a 1990s sci-fi classic that explores the concept of virtual reality.

"The Strain," a horror series based on the novels by Donnybrook, premiered in 2014 and is set in New York City during the outbreak of a vampire epidemic.

Also worth checking out is "The Leftovers," a show that takes place in the aftermath of an event that kills most people on Earth.

Lastly, "Lost," a show that aired from 2004 to 2010, follows a group of people who find themselves stranded on a mysterious island.

These films provide a wide range of options for those interested in exploring the genre of horror and the themes it explores.
