Documentaries

- The Legacy Collection: Great Changemakers in America
  - Changemakers are described as being relentless, non-partisan and fearless in their pursuit of solving issues to improve the world. No word better describes three of the most influential men who fought for human rights throughout American history: Abraham Lincoln, John F. Kennedy and Martin Luther King Jr. This documentary chronicles their monumental legacy. Nearly 23 hours on eight DVDs. Mill Creek. Pub. at $19.98

- Terror in Paradise
  - Terrorists are targeting tourist destinations, which is greatly affecting the tourism industry in once popular and prosperous vacation spots. This documentary takes a look at those attacks and the effects they have had on those who relied upon heavy tourism. 52 minutes. Dreamscapes Media. Pub. at $24.95

- Separated: Children at the Border
  - With on the ground reporting from Central America and at the border, this documentary examines the immigration policy under both the Trump and Obama administrations, investigates the origins of “zero tolerance,” and reveals the journeys and voices of children who were separated from their parents. English SDH. 60 minutes. PBS. Pub. at $24.99

UFOs, Conspiracies & Mysteries

- UFOs, Conspiracies & Mysteries
  - This documentary explores the kaleidoscope of Jewish identities through the ever changing music of the diaspora. Stereotypes and upending expectations, each scene brings us closer to the nomadic soul wandering in a borderless world of harmonies, exploring the birth of a dynamic new Jewish music. Pub. at $24.95

Sports

- Urban Wrestling Federation: Do Time
  - Fierce squads from across America are converging on the cash rich UWF battlegrounds. These ruthless goons are headed by some of the most street savvy hip hop bosses in the music biz, such as DJ Self, Young Breed, Brisco, 40 Glocc, just to name a few.
