THE COMPLETE HISTORY OF EXTREME KILLERS: Tales of the World’s Most Notorious Serial Killers. By Michael Newton. The FBI is normally conservative, but on October 2019 a spokesperson took a leap of faith, naming what were then seven serial killers. Little America’s most prolific serial killer of all time with more than fifty confirmed and 93 claimed kills. He is but one of the individuals featured in this book of mass murderers. Paperbound. Pub. at $17.95

199677X “THE DEVIL MADE ME DO IT!” Crime and Punishment in Early New England. By Janet Hahn. Montford. Discover the antics of New England’s original criminals and how the courts punished them for their misdeeds. Whether it was murder, robbery, blasphemy, or public drunkenness, these chapters illuminate the crimes of early New England, social and political causes behind several of them. Illus. 232 pages. Globe Pequot. Paperbound. Pub. at $14.95

553389X SECRET JOURNEY TO PLANET SERPO: A True Story of Interplanetary Travel. By Len Kasten. On July 16, 1965, a massive alien spacecraft from another solar system, piloted by alien visitors known as the Emens, welcomed 12 astronaut-trainee military personnel aboard their craft. This volume exposes the truth of this human-alien interaction, revealing that our government continues to have an ongoing relationship with the Emens to this day. Illus., some in color. 282 pages. Bear & Company. Paperbound. $19.95

1965980 A BROTHERHOOD BETRAYED: England, Jack the Ripper and Fall of Murder, Inc. By Michael Cannell. Traces the history of Murder, Inc., through Abe Reles’s rise from street punk to murder chieftain to stool pigeon, ending with his fatal encounter on the Island Road with a mob hit. For a brief moment before WWII, America fixated on the delicate balance of trust and betrayal on the Brooklyn streets. This is the story of the man who tipped the balance. Photos. 326 pages. Paperbound. $29.95

7716389 MURDER, MADNESS AND MAYHEM: Twenty-Five Tales of True Crime and Dark History. By Mike Browne.
