American West & the Frontier

- 3720552 The Mountain Men. By George Laycock. Collects the firsthand accounts of the fur trappers of the 1820s and '30s who became the first white explorers of the Rocky Mountains, preceded only by Lewis and Clark, hunting buffalo and trapping beaver, encountering the Indians, and battling the untamed wilderness. Illus. 246 pages. Lyons. Paperbound. Pub. at $15.95 $11.95

- 3735084 Tough Towns: True Tales from the Gritty Streets of the Old West. By Robert Barr Smith. The only people tougher than the bank and train robbers of the Wild West were the lawmen and criminals, who together created law and order on the streets of their towns. Their stories, which until now, have a fascinating part of the West. Photos. 224 pages. Zane Grey. Paperbound. Pub. at $14.95

- 3737498 the leWard and clark journals: an american epic of discovery. Ed. by Gary E. Moulton. In this riveting account, Moulton highlights the natural highs of the Lewis and Clark journals so that the voices of the enlister-made and Native peoples are heard alongside the words of the captains. The cultural differences between the corps and Native Americans make for a living drama that is, humorous, poignant and at least once, tragic. 497 pages. Bison. Paperbound. $19.95

- 3855290 Rendezvous at the alamo. By Virgil E. Baugh. At the fall of the Alamo ranks as one of the most recognizable events in American history, and Baugh presents capsule biographies of three prominent historical figures at the Alamo: Jim Bowie, Davy, Travers, and Crockett. Current Events & Issues

3764390 RETRIEVE THE STRONG GODS: Nationalism, Populism, and the Future of the West. By R.J. Rencich. After the staggering back to back world wars, the West embraced the ideal of the “open society,” that by liberating ourselves from the old attachments to nation, clan, and religion, we could build a prosperous world without borders. Rencich argues here that the populism and nationalism that are upending politics in America and Europe are a sign that this postwar consensus is breaking down. 182 pages. Gaia. Pub. at $21.95.

3731782 STAND DOWN: HOW Social Justice Warriors Are Sabotaging America’s Military. By James Hasson. In his shocking new examination, Hasson, a former Army captain and decorated Afghanistian veteran exposes the relentless campaign by progressive activists to remake the U.S. armed forces, even over the explicit objections of the most seasoned military leaders. An impeccably documented, clear, and passionate defense of what America’s military should be. 226 pages. Regnery. Pub. at $28.99.

3786242 WE ARE INDIVISIBLE: A Blueprint for Democracy After Trump. By Glenn Greenberg & Robert W. Jeffress. By laying out a democracy under threat and about a movement rising up to respond. The authors explain how to make Congress listen, how to build power together, and how to win. This is an essential call to arms, offers a far-reaching platform for reform that could save our democracy and make it work for us all. 334 pages. Dey Street. Pub. at $26.99.

3920321 TRUMPocalypse: Restoring American Democracy. By David Frum. Looks at the causes of our tragic national fragmentation and lays out a plan to restore a democracy at home, and to renew American leadership abroad. Frum gives both a warning of danger and a guide to reform that will be read and discussed for years to come. 262 pages. Harper. Pub. at $28.99. First Edition.

3714906 CARD – TURKEY & Erodgan. By Erbil Gunstic. The U.S. is being squeezed out by China and India, the number one and two economies in the world, and challenged by two upcoming Muslim countries. Indonesia and Turkey, from the other end. Now Donald Trump and Recep Tayyip Erdogan must work together to set the stage for the U.S. to keep of power against the rapidly rising East and establish balance of power against Turkey and national ism that are upending politics in America and Europe and casting a shadow over our very survival. 275 pages. Post Hill. Pub. at $28.99. First Edition.

3740277 WORLD WITHOUT MIND: The Existential Threat of Big Tech. By Franklin Foer. Americans are the victims of the computing revolution, says Foer. By telling the stories of Google, Facebook, Apple, and Amazon are trampling long-standing liberal values, especially intellectual property and privacy. By revealing how we have sold our soul to the companies, we cleane up with the world, we have the power to stem the tide. Forcex nots just the looming existential crisis but the imperative of resistance. 257 pages. Penguin. Pub. at $27.00. First Edition.

3895346 SECRETS OF THE SECRET SERVICE: The History and Uncertain Future of the U.S. Secret Service. By Gary J. Byrne with G.M. Schmidt. A former Secret Service Officer takes readers behind the scenes to understand the agency’s history and today’s security threats. This revealing analysis, Byrne shares what he has witnessed and learned about the Secret Service with the hope that the problems of this most important agency can be fixed. 293 pages. Center for a New American Security. Paperback. Pub at $15.99. First Edition.

3701993 BUT WHAT IF WE’RE WRONG? Thinking About the Present as If It Were the Past. By Chuck Klosterman. Klosterman skillfully combines an understanding of objective and subjective problems, Klosterman visualizes the contemporary world as it will appear to those who will perceive it as the distant past. It’s a thrilling call to arms, offering a far-reaching platform for the future. 268 pages. $19.95. First Edition.

6799612 FIRE AND FURY: Inside the Trump White House. By Michael Wolff. With extraordinary access to the Trump White House, Wolff tells the inside story of the most controversial and shocking presidency of our time. Brilliantly reported and astoundingly fresh, the jaw-dropping revelations in these pages finally reveal how and why Donald Trump has been, and continues to be, the king of the media. 322 pages. Holt. Pub at $30.00. First Edition.

2924579 DEEP STATE TARGET: By George Papadopoulos. As the author explains, American and allied intelligence services set out to destroy a Trump presidency before it even started. This is a revealing account of international spies and a disturbing eyewitness report on a secret double government, the Deep State, intent on destroying lives and a presidency. 244 pages. Division. Pub. at $29.99. First Edition.

3217744 THE BEST PEOPLE: Trump’s Brilliant of White Nationalism in America. By Alexander Azarian. Meticulously reported and enthralling, told, Nazaryan takes readers inside the federal government under Trump’s control, a government assembled by the very people charged to lead it, a government mired in confusion and corruption. 270 pages. Hachette. Pub. at $28.00. First Edition.

3745732 AUDIENCE OF ONE: Donald Trump, Television, and the Fracturing of America. By James Poniewozik. A penetrating and sobering analysis of the most powerful and reality show, performed for the benefit of an insominc, cable news junkie “audience of one,” that we all came to live in, whether we liked it or not. An incisive cultural history that captures a nation divided between love of TV and the rattled mind of a celebrity president. 325 pages. Liveright. Pub. at $27.95. First Edition.
