★ 378430 RETURN OF THE STRONG GODS: Nationalism, Populism, and the Future of the West. By Huntington. After the staggering back to back world wars, the West embraced the ideal of the “open society,” that by liberating ourselves from the old attachments to nation and religion we could build a prosperous world without borders. Huntington argues here that the populism and nationalism that are upending politics in America and Europe are a sign the consensus is breaking on both sides. Gateway. Pub. at $28.99

★ 368971 FAULT LINES: A History of the United States Since 1974. By K.M. Kruse & J.E. Zelizer. If you were asked when America became polarized, your answer would likely depend on your age. For leading historians Zelizer and Kruse in this study, they reveal how the divisions of the present day began almost five decades ago, and how they were widened thanks to profound changes in our political system. 16 pages of photos. Norton. Pub. at $17.95

★ 2983818 HOW TO LOSE A COUNTRY: The 7 Steps from Democracy to Dictatorship. By Ece Temelkuran. This impassioned plea is a warning to the world that while populism and nationalism don’t fully-formed into government, they creep. Temelkuran identifies the early-warning signs of this phenomenon sprouting up across the world, in order to define a global pattern and arm the reader with tools to root it out. 282 pages. Fourth Estate. Pub. at $27.99

★ 3689506 SAND AND BLOOD: America’s Stealth War on the Mexico Border. By John Carlos Frey. Frey takes readers to the Border Patrol checkpoints, unmarked graves, detention centers, and dangerous centers of the U.S. Mexico border. A frightening, essential story that reveals the war against immigrants has been escalating for decades fueled by defense contractors, lobbyists and politicians from both sides of the aisle. 245 pages. Books. Pub. at $28.00

★ 3786242 WE ARE INDIVISIBLE: A Blueprint for Democracy After Trump. By L. Greenberg & E. Levin. This is a story of a democracy under threat and a movement rising up to respond. The authors explain how to make Congress listen, how to build power together, and how to win. This title is for anyone worried about the state of democracy in America and wondering, what more can I do? 347 pages. Atria. Pub. at $27.00

★ 378617X THE FIRST: How to Think About Hate Speech, Campus Speech, Religious Speech, Fake News, Post-Truth, and Donald Trump. By Bosten. It seems that speech is a double edged concept: it frees us from constraints, but also fuels us to do horrible things.
