5936381 THE YEAR 1000: What Life Was Like at the Turn of the First Millennium. By R. Lacey & D. Danzig. A vivid and surprising portrait of life in England 1,000 years ago – no spinach, no sugar, but a world which already knew brain surgeons and property developers, and yes, even the occasional gossip columnist. Brilliantly brings this distant world closer than it’s ever been before. 230 pages. Abacus. Paperbound Import. $19.95

663394X NEITHER SNOW NOR RAIN: A History of the United States Postal Service. By Devin Leonard. Tackles the story of the USPS, a rich, multifaceted history full of remarkable characters, from the stamp-collecting FOR to the revolutionaries who challenged USPS’s monopoly on mail, to the renegade union members who brought the system to a halt in the 1970s. Illus. some in color. 316 pages. Grove. Pub. at $26.00

5857775 NAPOLEON: The End of Glory. By Munro Price. Highlights the dramatic two years between Napoleon’s retreat from Moscow and his 1814 abdication to the island of Elba. This short period, critical and fascinating but often neglected by historians, saw Napoleon’s loss of both his European empire and his control over France itself. 324 pages. Oxford. Pub. at $29.95

6696961 SOLVING STONEHENGE: The New Key to an Ancient Enigma. By Anthony Johnson. In this astonishing book, the author reveals that the clues to the enigma at Stonehenge lie not in the surrounding landscape, as modern archaeological enquiry would have us believe, but within the stones themselves. 150 illus. 45 in color. 288 pages. Thames & Hudson. Pub. at $40.00

6551882 KING LEOPOLD’S GHOST: A Story of Greed, Terror and Heroism in Colonial Africa. By Adam Hochschild. Haunting account of the megalomanical king of Belgium who seized for himself the vast territory surrounding the Congo River, plundered the area of its rubber, and brutalized its people—all while striving to cultivate his reputation as a model of international philanthropy. 376 pages. Pan. Paperbound. $19.95

6872668 THE SOUTH CHINA SEA: The Struggle for Power in Asia. By Bill Hayton. China’s rise has upset the global balance of power, and the first place to feel the strain is Beijing’s back yard: the South China Sea. Through lively stories of individuals who have shaped current conflicts, Hayton here demystifies the region’s complex history and contemporary reality. 298 pages. Yale. Pub. at $35.00

6967227 ROOSEVELT AND STALIN: Portrait of a Partnership. By Susan Butler. Out of the tumult of WWII came the unlikely geopolitical partnership between the leaders of the capitalist and Communist worlds. It became more than allies of convenience. Here, Butler offers a rare portrait of this uneasy but crucial collaboration in a comprehensive, engrossing political history. Photos. 494 pages. Knopf. Pub. at $35.00

---

6668089 THE LOST BOOKS OF THE BIBLE. By Philip F. Nelson. Expertly weaving evidence and narrative, the author provides conclusive proof that the King James’ successor, Lyndon B.
