LIMITED QUANTITY 6850444 THE COMMUNIST MANIFESTO. By K. Marx & F. Engels. With a new introduction. 1848. Engels would have expected the explosive effect this work would have on world history. In it, Marx and Engels condemn the bourgeoisie’s exploitation of the working class and predict a revolution that would abolish private property, overthrow the bourgeoisie and end with the collapse of capitalism. Illus. 128 pages. Arcturus. Paperbound. Pub. at $12.95

6990006 THE POLITICS OF DECEPTION: JFK’s Secret Decisions on Vietnam, Civil Rights, and Cuba. By Patrick J. Kennedy. Based on 1,600 oral histories at the John F. Kennedy library and the myths of Camelot and reveal the ruthless politician underneath. From planting the seeds of the Vietnam War to attempting to undermine the civil rights movement, Sloyan exposes the startling connection to Moscow and Russia’s political game to influence and the crisis of liberal democracy. He argues that the erosion of middle-class incomes has eaten away at liberal democratic influence and the origins, impact, and consequences of the First and Second World Wars. By examining and following the trajectories of some of the most influential figures of the time, Clarke illuminates many crucial issues of the period: the Cold War struggle, military strategy, income inequality, and contentious party issues. Here, Rove explains how McKinley and his successful campaign offered constructive answers for these challenges—answers that serve as invaluable lessons today. Over 15 hours on thirteen CDs. S&S Audio. Pub. at $39.99
