6881912 THE POPE WHO WOULD BE KING: The Exile of Pius IX and the Emergence of Modern Europe. By David I. Kertzer. The wave of revolution that swept through Europe in 1848 now seemed poised to end the papes’ thousand year reign over the Papal States, if not the papacy itself. Pius then flees into exile. This account sheds new light on the end of rule by divine right in the West and the emergence of modern Europe. Illus. 474 pages. Random. Pub. at $29.95 $25.95

6796889 MARY QUEEN OF SCOTS’ DOWNFALL: The Life and Murder of Henry, Lord Darnley. By Robert Stedall. In the early hours of Friday, 10 February 1567, an explosion ripped through the glamorous city of Edinburgh, killing the young king of Scotland. Henry Stuart, the English Catholic prince, was the only candidate left as heir to Mary Queen of Scots’s throne in Scotland and England. The murder of Henry, the so-called “Sempill blast”, seems poised to end the popes’ thousand year reign over the Papal States, if not the papacy itself. Pius then flees into exile. This account sheds new light on the end of rule by divine right in the West and the emergence of modern Europe. Illus. 474 pages. Random. Pub. at $29.95 $25.95
