WE ARE CHARLESTON By Herb Frazier et al. The recounting of a horrific crime sets forth and explains the origins and nature of the African Methodist Episcopal Church and the position of Mother Emanuel in the denomination, in Charleston, and in the history of the United States. Without this understanding we cannot fully grasp the meaning of what happened and why Mother Emanuel was the killer’s target. 230 pages. Thomas Nelson. Pub. at $24.99. Item #6701272 $3.95

PUTIN ON THE MARCH: The Russian President’s Unchecked Global Advance By Douglas E. Schoen. The author explains that Putin’s mission is no abstraction but rather an active, ongoing campaign, and one that the Russian president has pursued with far more successes than setbacks. Schoen cautions that the United States lacks a plan for combating Russia’s ability in keeping the U.S. military out of the region. He argues, it’s up to us to radically change it. 227 pages. Metropolitan. Paperbound. Pub. at $15.99. Item #6877842 $11.95

GLOBAL DISCONTENTS: Conversations on the Rising Threats to Democracy By N. Chomsky & J. Barsamian. In discussions with Barsamian, Chomsky asks us to consider the world we are leaving to the next generation: one imperiled by climate change and the growing potential for nuclear war. If the current system is incapable of dealing with these treats, he argues, it’s up to us to radically change it. 227 pages. Metropolitan. Paperbound. Pub. at $18.00. Item #6771580 $12.95

LISTEN, YANKEE! Why Cuba Matters By Tom Hayden. Based on unprecedented access to both Cuban and American officials, this volume offers fresh insight into one of history’s most enigmatic relationships between nation-states. IRREGULAR WAR: The New Threat from the Margins By Paul Rogers. Focuses on the broad implications of movements such as ISIS for a world facing the twin problems of an unstable wealth-poor divide and environmental constraints. Unless these problems can be recognized and addressed we face a period of deep instability, including a much-increased risk of ‘revolts from the margins.’ 248 pages. I.B. Tauris. Paperbound. Pub. at $15.95. Item #6718602 $3.95

THE AMERICA SYNDROME: Apocalypse, War, and Our Call to Greatness By Betsy Hartmann. Hartmann sheds light on a pervasive but (until now) invisible theme shaping the American mindset: apocalyptic thinking. Revealing how this language of the left, initially intended to rally the ethos to our detriment, she argues for a reclaiming of our human agency, suggesting that by changing the way we think, we just might change the world. 282 pages. Seven Stories. Pub. at $24.95. Item #658991X $4.95

DEBATING THE END OF HISTORY By David W. Noble. Exposes the cost of the segregation of the physical sciences from the humanities and social sciences, even as it demonstrates the required movement of the humanities toward the ecological vision of a single, interconnected world. - God's Bucket List: Heavenly Surefire Way to Happiness in This Life and Beyond by Teresa Tomeo. A collection of poignant, witty, and sometimes edgy personal reflections, Tomeo reminds us that life is not about us. It's about God. Using the prism of her life experiences, she imagines a bucket list that God wants us to embrace in order to lead an abundant life in this world and the next. 176 pages. Image. Pub. at $17.99.

- Illustrated History of the Popes: By Charles Phillips. Presents a comprehensive account of the lives of popes, from the time of St. Peter and the early Christian Church through the glories of Julius II and the Renaissance to Francis today. Includes a timeline of events from 64 AD to the present day, with at-a-glance fact boxes detailing key figures of each pope's tenure. 256 pages. Lorenz. 6¼x11¼. Pub. at $35.00.

- Christianity's Quiet Success: By Lisa Kaaren Bailey. The sermons of the Eusebius Gallican collection were popular from late antiquity through the high Middle Ages, but due to their unassuming nature, have since become largely unknown. Here, Bailey brings these anonymous, multi-authored sermons back into the light with an insightful new study. 278 pages. UNP. Paperbound. Pub. at $34.00.

- Earthly Mission: The Catholic Church and World Development by Robert Calderis. Having traveled through Africa, Asia, and Latin America, Calderis examines the tensions and paradoxes within the Catholic Church—complicity with genocide in Rwanda and dictatorship in Argentina versus the defense of human rights in Brazil and El Salvador; the refusal until recently to counteract conduit use in Africa versus support of girls' education. 278 pages. Yale. Pub. at $35.00.

- My Perfect One: Typology and Early Rabbinic Interpretation of Song of Songs by Jonathan Kaplan. Investigates an under-appreciated collection of works of rabbinic literature from the first few centuries of the Common Era, known as the tannaitic midrashim. Through this approach to Song of Songs, the Tannaim helped lay the foundations for later Jewish thought of a robust theology of intimacy in God's relationship with the Jewish people. 225 pages. Oxford. Pub. at $78.00.

- Assimilate or Go Home: By D.L. Mayfield. Mayfield's account of her life as a missionary working with a group of Somali Bantu refugees in Portland, OR. Following her dream of missionary work, she takes us through the struggles that weighed heavily on her faith. But also through the many hardships she experienced a renewal of strength and belief had formed. 267 pages. Zondervan. Paperbound. Pub. at $14.99.

- The Sacred Way: By Michael Yankowski. Guided by the voice of Father Solomon, a local monk, Yankowski spent a year of focused engagement with spiritual practice both ancient and modern that fundamentally reshaped and revived his life. His story will resonate with those who wish to deepen their own committed faith as well as those who are searching for their own authentic encounter with the Divine. 354 pages. Zondervan. Paperbound. Pub. at $15.99.

THE ROMANS WHO SHAPED BRITAIN By S. Moorhead & D. Stuttard. Explores the narrative of Britannia through the lives of its generals, governors, and emperors—and those they sought to rule. The rich cast of characters includes Roman men and women, from noble and venal, from Caesar, Agrippa, and Boudica to Carausius, Magnentius, and Valentinus. Color photos. 288 pages. Item #6696740. Paperbound. Pub. at $34.95...

THE CURIOS WORLD OF SAMUEL PEPPS & JOHN EVELYN By Margaret Wiles. An intimate portrait of two pivotal Restoration figures, and celebrated English diarists, during one of the most dramatic periods of English history. Through the richly documented lives of two remarkable men, Wiles revisits the history of London during a tumultuous age. 48 pages of illus., some color. 282 pages. Yale. Paperbound. Pub. at $18.00...

THE DEAD DO NOT DIE By Sven Lindqvist. Brings together two important works, Exterminate All the Brutes and The War of the Worlds: Exterminate All the Brutes by one of our most original writers on race, colonialism, and genocide. This historical journey through the lands the British claimed as their own is one of Lindqvist’s most powerful works. Illus. 382 pages. New Press. Paperbound. Pub. at $21.95.

THE PRIVATE LIFE OF EDWARD IV By John Ashdown-Hill. A renowned Richard III historian turns his attention to Richard’s eldest brother, Edward IV and unravels the complex web of stories around Edward’s private life, discussing the truth behind Edward’s reputation. Did Edward have numerous mistresses? Did he produce many bastards? Who was his legal wife? And what caused the early death of Eleanor Talbot, reputed to be his wife? 308 pages. Amherst. Paperbound. Pub. at $14.95.

EDWARD II: The Unconventional King By Kathryn Warner. Using almost exclusively 14th-century sources and many of Edward’s own letters and speeches, Warner tells the story of one of the most reviled English kings in history. Stripping away centuries of myths, she provides a far more accurate and vivid portrait than has ever been offered before. 16 pages of color photos. 319 pages. Amherst. Paperbound. Pub. at $14.95.

THE WARS OF THE ROSES: The Key Players in the Struggle for Supremacy By Matthew Lewis. Examines the people behind the Wars of the Roses, exploring the personalities of the main players, their motives, successes and failures. He uncovers some of the lesser-known tales and personal stories often lost in the broad sweep of this time, in a period of famously complex loyalties and shifting fortunes. 16 pages of color illus. 287 pages. Amherst. Paperbound. Pub. at $17.95.

THE EARLS OF ESSEX: A Tale of Noble Misfortune By Robert Bard. Delivers the dramatic, often erratic, and at times unbelievable story of one of England’s premier aristocratic families, who in 1661 were given the Earldom of Essex by Charles II. Tracing their story for some 900 years, Bard examines the rise and fall of the family, providing in-depth analysis on the reasons behind their decline. 192 pages. Fonthill. Pub. at $32.95.

GEORGE I: The Lucky King By Tim Blanning. This incisive short biography examines George I’s life and career as a German prince and as king. When he died, his legacy was order and prosperity at home and power and prestige abroad. Disagreeable to many, he was also tough, determined, and effective. Illus. in color. 116 pages. Penguin. Pub. at $21.95.

THE DEBATABLE LAND: The Lost World Between Scotland & England By Graham Robb. The oldest detectable territorial division in Great Britain, the Debatable Land, served as a buffer between Scotland and England. After most of its population was slaughtered or deported, it became the last part of Great Britain to be brought under the control of the state. In this study, Robb proves the Debatable Land to be a crucial missing piece in the puzzle of British history. 16 pages of illus., some color. 334 pages. Norton. Pub. at $27.95.

ABBOTSFORD TO ZION: The Story of Scottish Place Names Around the World By Elspeth Wills. An intriguing exploration of Scottish place names, with particular focus on the far-flung places around the world, from Antarctica to Zambia, and offers a unique perspective on the role Scots have played abroad. 240 pages. Birlinn. Paperbound. Item #6798942. Pub. at $21.95.

THE TWO EDWARDS: How King Edward VII and Foreign Secretary Sir Edward Grey Fomented the First World War By Peter Hiet. This account is unique in that it concentrates on the leading role played by King Edward VII and Foreign Secretary Edward Grey, which is examined peripherally, if at all, by others. King Edward is acknowledged as the author of the Triple Entente, but his role is peripheral. 179 pages. Yale. Paperbound. Pub. at $19.95.

PAGAN BRITAIN By Ronald Hutton. Explores evidence concerning pagan beliefs and rituals, and the meanings of such sacred sites as Stonehenge and Avebury in this fascinating history of paganism in Britain before the arrival of Christianity. Illus. 480 pages. Yale. Paperbound. Pub. at $35.00.

THE GUNPOWDER PLOT By Alan Haynes. This updated edition offers the clearest, most balanced view yet of often conflicting evidence, disentangling the threads of disarray, intrigue, betrayal, terror and retribution. This updated edition gathers together startling evidence to uncover the depth and extent of the plot, and how close the plotters came to de-stabilizing the government in one of the most notorious terrorist plots of British history. 188 pages. History Press. Paperbound. Pub. at $14.95.

SOUTHWEST: Gateway to the British Empire Ed. by Miles Taylor. Looks at the modern history of the city and port of Southampton through the lens of empire. It examines some of the major international celebrities associated with the region, as well as the city itself during the conflicts that defined Britain’s imperial period, from the Napoleonic to the world wars. Illus. 248 pages. I.B. Tauris. Pub. at $49.00.

THE HISTORY OF THE KINGS OF BRITAIN By Geoffrey of Monmouth. Compiled in 1136, this work traces the story of the realm from its supposed foundation by Brutus to the coming of the Saxons some 2,000 years later. Vividly portrays legendary and semi-legendary figures such as Lear, Cymeline, Merlin the magician, and the most famous of all British heroes, King Arthur.

Russian & Soviet History

- THE MIDWIFE by Susan Cohen. Looks at midwifery in Britain from ancient times up to the present, paying particular attention to its incredible medical and social advances of the last 150 years. Well illus. 64 pages. Shire. Paperbound. Pub. at $14.00. Item #6707410

- HOMINTERN: How Gay Culture Liberated the Modern World by Gregory Woods. Crossing continents, languages and almost a century, Woods identifies the ways in which homosexuality has helped shape Western culture. From the trials of Oscar Wilde to the gay liberation era, he surveys a period in which increased visibility made acceptance of homosexuality one of the measures of modernity. 16 pages of photos. 421 pages. Yale. Pub. at $35.00. Item #6948687

Explorers & Exploration

- THE LAST WILD MEN OF BORNEO: A True Story of Death and Treasure by Carl Hoffman. Tracing the entwined tales of Michael Palmieri, one of the world’s most successful tribal-art field collectors, and Bruno Manser, the Swiss environmentalist who abandoned Western society to live for decades among the fabled “headhunters of Borneo,” Hoffman reveals both the grandeur and the precarious fate of the wildest place on Earth. Photos. 347 pages. Morrow. Paperbound. Pub. at $17.99. Item #2910814

- A COLD WELCOME: The Little Ice Age and Europe’s Encounter with North America by Sam White. Tells the story of this crucial period in world history, from Europe’s earliest expeditions in an unfamiliar landscape to the perilous first winters at Santa Fe, Quebec, and Jamestown. White describes how the severity and volatility of the Little Ice Age climate threatened to freeze and starve out the Europeans’ new settlements. Maps. 361 pages. Harvard. Pub. at $29.95. Item #6846133

- THE CONQUEST OF THE NORTH ATLANTIC by G.J. Marcus. From the opening descriptions of the launching of a curach on the Aran Islands, through the great pages of the Norse Sagas describing the first recorded sighting of America, this account brilliantly conveys the excitement and danger of the conquest of the North Atlantic in a narrative that is based equally on scholarly research and sound seanachship. Illus. 224 pages. Boydell. Paperbound. Pub. at $24.95. Item #6846688

Women in History

- The Smithsonian First Ladies Collection by L.K. Graddy & A. Pastan. Through these image filled pages—from Frances Cleveland’s dazzling wedding gown and Grace Coolidge’s beaded flapper dress to Betty Ford’s campaign for the Equal Rights Amendment and Hillary Clinton’s historic Senate race—you will get to know America’s first ladies like never before. 104 pages.
