- REVOLUTION By Russell Brand. The celebrated British funnyman turns his eye to the sorry state of the world today, lacerating the straw men and paper tigers of our conformist times and, with the help of experts from Thomas Piketty to George Orwell, presenting a vision for a fairer, saner society that’s both fun and inclusive. 299 pages. Ballantine. Pub. at $26.00
- MY TURN Hillary Clinton Targets the Presidency By Doug Henwood. In his concise, devastating indictment, Henwood reveals how Clinton’s promises of hope and change are not to be trusted. Rigorously reviewing her record, he shows how her positions on key issues have always been subject to political advantage, and how her pull to the presidency is largely contingent on notions of feasibility and obligation. St. Martin’s. Pub. at $27.99
- THE FUTURE OF POWER By Joseph S. Nye, Jr. Nye is the preeminent theorist of power in world affairs today, and this story is a grand synthesis of his ideas and an essential guide to the debate over the decline of the United States and the rise of China. 298 pages. PublicAffairs. Pub. at $16.99
- AMERICA THE BEAUTIFUL Rediscovering What Made This Nation Great By Ben & Candy Carson. The renowned neurosurgeon and presidential candidate delivers his sobering and inspiring manifesto of America’s greatness, its failings, and the values and changes it will take to carry our country into a bright and prosperous future. 205 pages. Zondervan. Paperback. Pub. at $14.99
- A NUN ON THE BUS How All of Us Can Create Hope, Change, and Community By Sister Simone Campbell. In the summer of 2012, Sister Simone Campbell and a group of fellow Roman Catholic nuns toured parts of the country to rally support against Congressmen Paul Ryan’s and Ben Bernanke’s political message using one of the four postcard designs in this collection, featuring prompts for VOTE YES; VOTE NO; THANK YOU; and ACT NOW! messages. Whatever your point of view, these removable postcards make it easy to share what’s on your mind. Sterling. Paperback. Pub. at $9.95
- AIM HIGH IN CREATION! A One-of-a-Kind Journey Inside North Korea’s Propaganda Machine By Anna Broinowski. The author is the only Westerner ever granted full access to North Korea’s propaganda machine—its film industry. She offers vivid, sometimes hilarious descriptions of bizarre disconnects and warm friendships in a world without advertisements or commercial culture. Color photos. 267 pages. Arcade. Pub. at $27.99
- THE AGE OF CLI NTON: America in the 1990s By Troy B. Griffith. Explores the tintersection of the Clinton presidency alongside the decade’s cultural changes. Taking the ‘90s year by year, Troy Griffith lays out the Clinton legacy with compelling arguments and colorful anecdotes that make it easy to share what’s on your mind. Sterling. Paperback. Pub. at $14.99
- THE RAGE: The Vicious Circle of Islamist and Far-Right Extremism By Julia Dörr. Includes interviews with leading analysts and activists from the “new” far right and Islamist extremists, and considers the consequences for the global terror threat. Based on first-hand interviews, this study introduces readers to the world of reciprocal radicalization and the hotbeds of extremism that have developed. 253 pages. I.B. Tauris. Paperback. Pub. at $18.00

★ THE POWER MANUAL: How to Master Complex Power Dynamics by Cyndi Suarez. This concise action manual explores major concepts of power, with a focus on the dynamics of domination and liberation, and presents methods for shifting power relations and enacting freedom. Suarez examines key ways that power is deployed and transformed in society; explains how to refuse powerless identities; and features workshop games and group activities. 184 pages. New Society. Paperbound. Pub. at $19.99.

★ NEW REFORMATION: Notes of a Neolithic Conservative by Paul Goodman. In his last book of social criticism, Goodman reassesses the results of what he considered a moral and spiritual upheaval in the '60s, comparable to the Protestant Reformation: “the breakdown of belief, and the emergence of new belief in sciences and professions, education, and civil legitimacy.” 194 pages.

Item #5763967 - $5.95

★ ZINN FOR BEGINNERS by David Cogswell. The author describes the life and work of the most vital historian of our time. Zinn led a revolution in the writing of history by telling the story not from the standpoint of conquerors and rulers, but from the side of ordinary people who always bear the brunt of the ambitions of tyrants. Illus. 163 pages. For Beginners. Paperbound. Pub. at $14.99.

Item #613152 - $11.95

★ THE FOURTH WAY: The Conservative Playbook for a Lasting GOP Majority by Hugh Hewitt. Having interviewed Donald Trump 15 times during the 2016 campaign, Hewitt is uniquely qualified to spell out what the president and a unified GOP can transform the country. Here he does just that, outlining amazing possibilities in everything from defense to immigration to health care. 325 pages. S&S. Pub. at $24.99.

Item #6712169 - $3.95

★ THE DESTRUCTION OF HILLARY CLINTON by Susan Bordo. Unpacks the right’s assault on Clinton and her reputation, how the left provoked suspicion and indifference among young voters, the inescapable presence of James Comey, questions about Russian influence, and media malpractice in covering the candidate. 249 pages. Melville House. Paperbound. Pub. at $16.99.

Item #6791733 - $7.95

Item #6662943 - $7.95

Item #5860261 - $4.95

★ CREATING RUSSOPHOBIA: From the Great Religious Schism to Anti-Putin Hysteria by Guy Mettan. Mttan unpacks 1,000 years of geopolitical deception and discuses the West accuses Russia of empire-building, when 15 states once part of the defunct Warsaw Pact are now part of NATO, and why antiathony against Russia has been so easily revived over a crisis in distant Ukraine. 388 pages. Clarity. Paperbound. Pub. at $29.95.

Item #661708 - $19.95

★ FEVER SWAMP: A Journey Through the Strange Newland of the 2016 Presidential Race by Richard North Patterson. Patterson accepted an invitation to write one column per week for The Huffington Post about the utterly unpredictable and uniquely consequential presidential race of 2016. Those essays are collected here in a highly personal “journal” chronicing Patterson’s observations in real time. 448 pages. Pub. at $26.99.

Item #6791085 - $6.95

★ BEYOND REASON by J.P. Bembach. Presents one of the most comprehensive and rigorously researched refutations of the major Right-wing misconceptions, delusions, and outright lies that have come to dominate the discourse and policies of conservative politics. 309 pages. General History

- The Network: The Battle for the Airwaves and the Birth of the Communications Age By Scott Woolley. Recounts one of the greatest business heists in American history, the massive rip off of the airwaves, as it played out in a compelling drama between the technology’s inventor, Edwin Armstrong, its primary purveyor, David Sarnoff, the head of RCA and NBC, and corrupt regulators across the country. 16 pages of photos. 434 pages. Pegasus. Pub. at $27.95
- Breaking News: Renaissance Journalism and the Birth of the Newspaper By C.R. Kyle & J. Peacey. Traces the development of the newspaper in England, from its origins in manuscript letters and imported corantos in Shakespeare’s England, to the introduction of daily newspapers, regional journals and specialist magazines around 1700. The examples of early journalism illustrated in this volume reveal the indelible mark the early English newspaper has left on modern new culture. 182 pages. Folger Shakespeare Librar. 8x10½. Paperbound. Pub. at $29.95
- The History of Preston Guild: England’s Greatest Carnival By Alan Crosby. Covers the organization and the celebrations of the Guild from 1173 to 2012. Alan Crosby tells the story in fascinating detail, and reflects on the many changes that the Guild has undergone, while highlighting the extraordinary sense of continuity over more than eight centuries. 32 pages of illus. 246 pages. MYSTERIES OF THE BRIDECHAMBER: The Initiation of Jesus and the Temple of Solomon By Victoria LePage. Posits that Jesus practiced the tradition of sacred consorship, a rite known to early church fathers as the bridechamber sacrament, whereby the marriage of the masculine and feminine energies was effectuated. Reveals a life story for Jesus that differs markedly from the Church has offered. Illus. 418 pages. Inner Traditions. Paperbound. Pub. at $19.95. Item #6647871 $5.95

FLOURISHING: Why We Need Religion in a Globalized World By Miroslav Volf. A leading theologian sheds light on how religions and globalization have historically interacted and argues for what their relationship ought to be. By keeping alive the truth that human beings do not live by bread alone, religions foster hope and global solidarity and globalization can help violent religions to rediscover their authentic universality. 280 pages. Yale. Pub. at $26.00. Item #6943632 $3.95

JOHN DONNE’S 1622 GUNPOWDER PLOT SERMON: A Parallel-Text Edition Ed. by Jeanne Shami. Presents a parallel-text edition of the only “authorial” manuscript ever discovered for any of John Donne’s sermons. Shami introduces the work by placing it in its textual, cultural, and scholarly contexts. Then, the sermon itself is reproduced in facsimile, and Shami transcribes each page. 200 pages. Duquesne UP. Pub. at $45.00. Item #6926274 $2.95

WHO IS THIS MAN? By John Ortberg. Offers a powerful testament to the sweeping historical impact of Jesus Christ, demonstrating that nothing in our existence—art, science, government, medicine, education—has been quite the same since that fateful Sunday so long ago. 220 pages. Zondervan. Pub. at $22.99. Item #5840791 $6.95

HERESY: Ten Lies They Spread About Christianity By Michael Coren. In a climate that is increasingly as ignorant of Christianity as it is good at condemning it, Coren gives historical background, provides examples of how these attacks are made, and outlines authentic Christian beliefs. Hard hitting and provocative, he offers a powerful rebuttal to attacks on the Christian faith. 240 pages. Signal. Paperbound. Pub. at $17.99. Item #456751X $12.95

BAND OF ANGELS: The Forgotten World of Early Christian Women By Kate Cooper. This inspiration history of the early Christian movement paints a vivid picture of the triumphs and hardships of the first mothers of the infant church. Following the lives of influential women across the first centuries of the church, it demonstrates how women from all walks of life played an invaluable role in Christianity’s spread throughout the world. 342 pages. Atlantic. Paperbound. Pub. at $8.99. Item #5884861 $7.95

THE RISE AND FALL OF ADAM AND EVE By Stephen Greenblatt. Tracking the tale into the deep past, to the Hebrews’ exile in Babylon, Greenblatt explores the tremendous theological, artistic, and cultural creativity over the centuries that made Adam and Eve so profoundly resonant, and continues to make them, finally, so very “real” to millions of people even in the present. 419 pages. Norton. Pub. at $31.95. Item #6887899 $21.95

WHEN GOD ISN’T GREEN By Jay Wexler. British History

DARK DAYS OF GEORGIAN BRITAIN: Rethinking the Regency By James Hesdon. Challenging a commonly romanticized image of high society and its achievements in fine arts and architecture, Hobson instead reveals an era of great social, political, and economic upheaval. He exposes the darker side of life in Regency Britain: rampant corruption in government, “bread or blood” rioting, grave illness, and more. Illus. 212 pages. Pen & Sword. Pub. at $34.95

Nelson’s lost jewel; The extraordinary story of the lost diamond Chelengk By Marilyn Downer. Tells the extraordinary true story of the Chelengk— from its gift to Admiral Lord Nelson by the Sultan of Turkey after the Battle of the Nile in 1798— to its tragic post-war theft, charting the jewel’s journey through history. 16 pages of color illustrations. 211 pages. Pen & Sword. Pub. at $34.95

Item #678738X $11.95

London’s triumph By Stephen Alford. As the sixteenth century progressed something extraordinary happened to place London at the center of the world stage forever. The author brings to life the network of merchants, visionaries, crooks, and sailors who changed London and England forever. Their ambition fueled a new view of the world, initiating a long era of trade and empire. 16 pages of color photos. 316 pages. Bloom bury. Pub. at $28.00

Crusoe’s island; A rich and curious history of pirates, castaways and madness By Andrew Lambert. Lambert tells the complex story of England’s relationship with the tiny island, drawing on voyage accounts, journal entries, maps and illustrations from the early encounters of the 1500s and the perilous journeys of the 18th century explorers and beyond, exploring reasons the English remain unwilling to give up the island.
