IMBECILES: The Supreme Court, American Eugenics, and the Sterilization of Carrie Buck by Adam Cohen. Tells the shocking story of Buck v. Bell, a 1927 Supreme Court case that remains one of the great inequalities of the American judicial system. Cohen exposes the court’s decision to allow the sterilization of a woman it labeled as “feebleminded,” and to champion the mass sterilization of Americans deemed to be genetically inferior. Photos. 402 pages. Penguin. Pub. at $28.00

THE CASE AGAINST THE SUPREME COURT by Enwin Chemerinsky. Drawing on a wealth of cases, from the most famous (Dread Scott) to obscure rulings, Chemerinsky reviews the Court’s historic failure in key areas, and its failure to enforce the Constitution in times of crisis. 386 pages. Viking. Pub. at $30.00

ENGINES OF TRUTH: Producing Veracity in the Victorian Courtroom by Kendrick modeling. Blending legal, social, and political history, Schneider shines a new light on the evolution of the cross examination, the most enduring product of this time, which was seen by contemporaries and subsequent legal scholars as the greatest legal engine ever invented for the discovery of truth. At $85.00

FREE SPEECH ON CAMPUS by E. Chemerinsky & H. Gillman. In this clear and carefully reasoned work, a university chancellor and a law school dean—both constitutional scholars who teach a course in free speech to undergraduates—argue that campuses must provide supportive learning environments for a diverse student body, but cannot restrict the expression of ideas. Paperback. Pub. at $16.00

THE END OF WHITE CHRISTIAN LIBERTY by Rand Paul. Drawing on findings from one of the largest troves of survey data on contemporary politics and religion, Jones shows how today’s most heated political controversies can be fully understood only in the context of the anxieties that white Christians feel as the cultural landscape has changed around them. Paperback. Pub. at $17.00

TAKING A STAND: Moving Beyond Partisan Politics to Unite America by Rand Paul. Senator Paul calls for changes in the Republican Party and American politics in order for Americans to take back what should be their right to determine their own destiny in chapters such as “Washington is Broken,” “Fixing Washington,” “Don’t Shoot the Messenger,” “How to Communicate Ideas of the 21st Century.” Paperback. Pub. at $27.00

THE GILDED RAGE: A Wild Ride Through Donald Trump’s America by Alexander Zaitchik. A gripping, intimate, heart-breaking portrait of the walking wounded who make up the base of the Trump movement. Wounded America has found its champion, someone to roar as loudly as they feel. It’s not the Orange Messiah we need to listen to however—it’s these fellow Americans. 127 pages. Skyhorse. Pub. at $21.99

ASIA’S RECKONING: China, Japan, and the Fate of U.S. Power in the Pacific Century by Richard McGregor. This volume is a history of the combative military, diplomatic, and economic relations among China, Japan, and the United States since the 1970s, and the potential crisis that lies ahead. This author takes us beyond the headlines to show how American power will stand or fall on its own ability to hold ground in Asia. 16 pages of photos. 396 pages. Viking. Pub. at $28.00

WHISTLESTOP By Philip White. A micro-history of the summer and fall of 1948, when Truman took to the rails, crisscrossing the country from June right up to Election Day. Those essays are collected here in a highly personal “journal” chronicling Patterson’s observations in real time. 448 pages. Quercus. Pub. at $26.99 Item #6791085 $6.95

RULES ORGANIZING CAN CHANGE EVERYTHING By B. Smith & Z. Exley. A riveting, behind-the-scenes narrative of how a fringe “distributed organizing” team ran an unprecedented insurgent campaign to put Bernie Sanders on top. The authors lay out 22 new “Rules” that overturn the old political playbook, revealing a future where political revolution is truly possible. 200 pages. Chelsea Green. Paperback. Pub. at $18.00 Item #5876109 $5.95

KINGS AND PRESIDENTS: Saudi Arabia and the United States Since FDR By Bruce Riedel. Offers an insider’s account of the U.S.-Saudi relationship using declassified documents, memoirs by both Saudis and Americans, and eyewitness accounts. Riedel, whose decades long career at the CIA, the White House, and the Brookings Institution has allowed him to follow these relationships, helps the reader gain an understanding of this complex partnership. 251 pages. Brookings Institution. Pub. at $29.99 $14.95

FAR AND AWAY: Reporting from the Brink of Change—Seven Continents, Twenty-Five Years By Andrew Solomon. One of our most original thinkers presents a riveting essay collection about places in dramatic political and cultural transition. Encircling South Africa, China, Romania, Guatemala, and more, the essays explore history as it unfolds, largely through the people who are creating and being shaped by it. 578 pages. Scribner. Pub. at $30.00 Item #6712625 $6.95

POWER AND GLORY: France’s Secret Wars with Britain and America, 1945-2016 By R.T. Howard. With material from original archive sources and interviews with diplomats and foreign policy experts, Howard reveals the “secret wars” that the French have fought with their rivals—Great Britain and the United States—and considers France’s true motives in Libya and the ongoing civil war in Syria. Photos. 344 pages. BitLitback. Pub. at $29.95 Item #6575684 $21.95

THE CORROSION OF CONSERVATISM: Why I Left the Right By Max Boot. ★ LOVE AND HATE IN THE HEARTLAND: Dispatches from Forgotten America By Mark Phillips. Going beyond talking heads and superficial media portrayals, these stories of humanity, and self-reliance, exposing the realities of small-town life. Phillips struggles to understand these people and challenges readers to question their own preconceived notions of America’s forgotten sons and daughters, who have voted in the last presidential election. 180 pages. Skyhorse. Paperbound. Pub. at $16.99

★ OUR SEPARATE WAYS By D.H. Allin & S.N. Simon. Anger and distrust have strained the U.S.-Israeli alliance as the Obama administration and the Netanyahu government have clashed over Israeli settlements, convulsions in the Arab world, and negotiating with Iran. Going separate ways would be an immense tragedy, and the authors argue that the shared vision that created it must be restored. 284 pages. PublicAffairs. Pub. at $26.99

THE WILL TO LEAD: America’s Indispensable Role in the Global Fight for Freedom By Anders Fogh Rasmussen. Reviewing current geopolitical events, from the Arab Spring and the North Korean nuclear threat to Russia’s annexation of Crimea and the invasion of Ukraine, Rasmussen concludes that the world is on fire and that there is a link between this outbreak and America’s reluctance to use hard power. 247 pages. Broadway. Pub. at $27.99

★ UNLEASHING DEMONS: The Bestselling Inside Story of Brexit By Craig Oliver. As Director of Politics and Communications, Oliver was in the room at every key moment during the E.U. referendum, the biggest political event in the U.K. since WWII. This is raw history at its very best, packed with enthralling detail from behind the closed doors of the campaign that changed British history forever. Color photos. 420 pages. Hodder. Paperbound. Pub. at $17.99

★ INDEPENDENTS RISING: Outsider Movements, Third Parties, and the Struggle for a Post-Partisan America By Jacqueline S. Salt. WHY LIBERALS WIN THE CULTURE WARS (EVEN WHEN THEY LOSE ELECTIONS) By Stephen Prothers. Reveals that the culture wars are not a modern invention, they have in fact been the mechanism by which the nation continually wrestles with, and expands on, what it means to be American. 326 pages. HarperCollins. Pub. at $26.99

CLINTON, INC.: The Audacious Rebuilding of a Political Machine By Daniel Halper. A story of strategic calculation, backroom deals, reckless gambles, and an unquenchable thirst for wealth and power. Halper describes in intimate detail how the Bill and Hillary partnership works, demonstrating how they are, in effect, dual CEOs of a single enterprise focused on the ultimate goal of reclaiming political power. 319 pages. Broadway. Paperbound. Pub. at $15.99

THE RUNNER-UP PRESIDENCY By Mark Weston. We have had a succession of runner-up presidencies for two centuries, and Weston shows how all too often, the electoral system shatters our faith in American democracy. With inclusive political and numerical analysis, he explains how the quirks of our electoral system played out in America’s six strangest elections. 216 pages. Lyons. Pub. at $24.95

A LESS PERFECT UNION: The Case for States’ Rights By Adam Freedman. Provides a history of states’ rights, from the Constitutional Convention through the Civil War and the New Deal to today. Freedman reveals how the Founders fought to keep power in the hands of the states; the role of states’ rights as a weapon against slavery; and the federal government’s abandonment of all constitutional limitations on the scope of its power. 358 pages. Broadway. Pub. at $27.95

DEAD PRESIDENTS: An American Adventure into the Strange Deaths and Surprising Afterlives of Our Nation’s Leaders By Brady Carlson. As Carlson sees it, the dead presidents tell us a great deal about ourselves, our history, and how we imagine our past and future. With an infectious passion for history and an eye for neglected places and offbeat characters, he shows that the way we memorialize our presidents reveals as much about us as it does about the men themselves. Photos. 324 pages. Norton. Pub. at $26.95

AMERICA FIRST! Its History, Culture, and Politics By Bill Kauffman. Kauffman explores the rich heritage, the turbulent present, and the possible future of the political and cultural tendency known as America First.” From it’s near eclipse in the war hysteria of the W.G. Item #5879862 $4.95
The Devil You Know: The Surprising Link Between Conservative Christianity and Crime

By Erika Potrero Sparks. While not resorting to a blanket denunciation of Christianity or religion as a whole, Sparks issues a wake-up call regarding conservative Christianity's toxic mixture of fundamentalism, authoritarian politics, patriotism, and retributive justice. Argues that high rates of violent crime in the U.S. can be correlated with Christian conservative attitudes. 320 pages. Prometheus. Pub. at $27.00

Dangerous Ground: My Friendship with a Serial Killer

By William Phillips. In September 2011, Phelps made a bold decision to make a convicted serial killer his consultant for the TV series Dark Minds. Under the code name “Raven,” the murderer helped analyze the minds and crimes of other killers. Here, for the first time, Phelps reveals Raven’s true identity, delivering the story of one of the most disturbed minds in America. 16 pages of photos. 353 pages. Kensington. Pub. at $26.00

Killers in the Family: Inside a Fatal Family of Criminals Bound by Blood

By Robert L. Snow. In July 2008, there was a rash of murders in Indianapolis, three of which occurred during robberies committed by Brian Reese. It was no wonder parents warned their children to stay away from the Reeses. But soon they would learn that the family’s secrets were darker than they ever imagined. Photos. 291 pages. Berkley. Paperbound. At $9.99

Bones: Brothers, Horses, Cartels, and the Borderland Dream

By Joe Toney. Delivers a riveting, layered crime narrative, intermingling the high-stakes world of horse racing with the morally dubious machinations of America’s drug war. 329 pages. One World. Pub. at $28.00

Boodlines: The True Story of a Drug Cartel, the FBI, and the Battle for a Horse-Racing Dynasty

By Melissa del Bosque. It was the tip that would change FBI rookie Scott Lawson’s life. Miguel Trevino, a leader of Mexico’s most brutal drug cartel, had bought a horse as part of his money-laundering scheme. Teaming with agent Alma Perez, Lawson set out to take down one of the world’s most fearsome drug lords—a gripping true life thriller that unfolds here. 394 pages. Ecco. Pub. at $27.99

The Secret Society of Moses: The Mosaic Bloodline and a Conspiracy Spanning Three Millennia

By Flavio Barbiero. After the book of Exodus, Moses’s two sons and numerous descendants all vanish from the Bible. The author’s investigation of this strange absence and his study of the centuries-long power struggle between the priests' families fighting for control of the Temple of Jerusalem starts with the rebellion against Rome and goes through to modern secret societies such as the Freemasons. Illus. 468 pages. Inner Traditions. Paperbound. Pub. at $26.95

Merlin and the Discovery of Avalon in the New World

By Graham Morris. Presents evidence that Merlin was an actual historical figure; the son of a Roman consul who became the last of the Romans to rule Britain in the 5th century. Furthermore, the evidence reveals that he died and was buried in what is now the United States. 16 pages of color photos. 231 pages. Bear & Company. Paperbound. Pub. at $18.00

The Tutankhamun Prophecies: The Sacred Secret of the Maya, Egyptians, and Freemasons

By Maurice Cotterell. Reveals the link between reincarnation and solar energy encoded in the tombs of Tutankhamun and the Mayan Lord Pacal. It is a jealously guarded secret held by a select number of occult groups, including the higher orders of Freemasonry. Illus., some in color. 356 pages. Bear & Company. Paperbound. Pub. at $20.00

In Plain Sight: The Kaufman County Prosecutor Murders

Prosecutor Murders: How Eric Williams’ Plan to Stop Him Failed to Stop Him

By Gary Williams. Eric Williams’ murderous crimes covered the front pages around the world. It seemed that every day a new man walked into court who had wronged him. Photos. 276 pages. Atria. Paperbound. Pub. at $14.95

L. Heyward: From Jail Guard to Perpetrator Inside Rikers Island

By L. Heyward. In this shocking memoir from a former corrections officer, Heyward shares an eye-opening, gritty, and devastating account of his descent into criminal life, smuggling contraband inside the infamous Rikers Island jails. 276 pages. Atria. Paperbound. Pub. at $16.00

Outlaws and Peace Officers: Memoirs of Crime and Punishment in the Old West

By John Thompson. Chronicles John Thompson’s eighteen years in confinement for twenty three hours a day, it was the tip that would change FBI rookie Scott Lawson’s life. Miguel Trevino, a leader of Mexico’s most brutal drug cartel, had bought a horse as part of his money-laundering scheme. Teaming with agent Alma Perez, Lawson set out to take down one of the world’s most fearsome drug lords—a gripping true life thriller that unfolds here. 394 pages. Ecco. Pub. at $27.99

The Devil You Know: The Surprising Link Between Conservative Christianity and Crime

By Erika Potrero Sparks. While not resorting to a blanket denunciation of Christianity or religion as a whole, Sparks issues a wake-up call regarding conservative Christianity’s toxic mixture of fundamentalism, authoritarian politics, patriotism, and retributive justice. Argues that high rates of violent crime in the U.S. can be correlated with Christian conservative attitudes. 320 pages. Prometheus. Pub. at $27.00

Dangerous Ground: My Friendship with a Serial Killer

By William Phillips. In September 2011, Phelps made a bold decision to make a convicted serial killer his consultant for the TV series Dark Minds. Under the code name “Raven,” the murderer helped analyze the minds and crimes of other killers. Here, for the first time, Phelps reveals Raven’s true identity, delivering the story of one of the most disturbed minds in America. 16 pages of photos. 353 pages. Kensington. Pub. at $26.00

Killers in the Family: Inside a Fatal Family of Criminals Bound by Blood

By Robert L. Snow. In July 2008, there was a rash of murders in Indianapolis, three of which occurred during robberies committed by Brian Reese. It was no wonder parents warned their children to stay away from the Reeses. But soon they would learn that the family’s secrets were darker than they ever imagined. Photos. 291 pages. Berkley. Paperbound. At $9.99

Bones: Brothers, Horses, Cartels, and the Borderland Dream

By Joe Toney. Tells the dramatic true story of Jose and Miguel Trevino, two brothers living parallel lives on either side of the U.S.-Mexico border, whose lives would converge in a major criminal conspiracy. Delivers a riveting, layered crime narrative, intermingling the high-stakes world of horse racing with the morally dubious machinations of America’s drug war. 329 pages. One World. Pub. at $28.00

Killing Time: An 18-Year Odyssey from Death Row to Freedom

By J. Hollway & R.M. Gauthier. Chronicles John Thompson’s eighteen years in confinement for twenty three hours a day, it was the tip that would change FBI rookie Scott Lawson’s life. Miguel Trevino, a leader of Mexico’s most brutal drug cartel, had bought a horse as part of his money-laundering scheme. Teaming with agent Alma Perez, Lawson set out to take down one of the world’s most fearsome drug lords—a gripping true life thriller that unfolds here. 394 pages. Ecco. Pub. at $27.99

Anatomy of Innocence: Testimonies of the Wrongfully Convicted

Edited by L. Caldwell & J. D. Klinger. Fourteen exonerated inmates narrate their stories to a roster of high-profile mystery and thriller writers, including Lee Child, Sara Paretsky, Laurie R. King, and Jan Burke. In this unique collaboration, these testimonies bear witness to the incredible stories of innocent men and women who were wrongly convicted of serious crimes and cast into our deeply flawed criminal justice system. Photos. 260 pages. Liveright. Pub. at $26.95

Hearts of Darkness: How Kids Are Becoming Mass Murderers and How We Can Stop It

By J. Liebert & W.J. Birmes. What causes someone to become a mass murderer, and can we stop them from going over the edge? Dr. Liebert uses his extensive experience in psychopathy and criminal psychology to describe how clinicians can identify the behaviors of potential suicidal mass killers and possibly prevent their crimes. 279 pages. Skyhorse. Pub. at $24.95

Ufos, Ets, and Alien Abductions: A Scientist Looks at the Evidence

By Don Donderi. Examines the evidence for and against UFOs, ETS, and alien abductions. ⭐️ COMFORTING THOUGHTS ABOUT DEATH THAT HAVE NOTHING TO DO WITH GOD ⭐️
By Greta Christina.
In this short collection of essays, the prominent atheist author offers secular ways to handle your own mortality and the death of those you love. Blending intensely personal experience with compassionate, down to earth wisdom, she explores a variety of natural philosophies of death. 104 pages. Pitchstone. Paperbound. Pub. at $9.95.

Economic History

⭐️ A HISTORICAL OF THE UNITED STATES IN FIVE CRASHES: Stock Market Meltdowns That Defined a Nation ⭐️
By Scott Nations.
Nations takes you on a journey through the five significant stock market crashes in the past century to reveal how they defined the United States today, and shows the clear-cut lessons they offer for preventing the next one. 336 pages. Nation Books. Pub. at $26.00.

Science & Invention

⭐️ AMERICA AT NIGHT ⭐️
By Don Ritter.
Contains almost 250 photos taken from the late nineteenth century to the 1960s by the General Electric Company. These images show more than half of America lighting up for the first time liberating the country from common darkness and allowing entertainment, work, and pleasure to become a 24 hour pursuit. 96 pages.

Maritime History

⭐️ EXPLORING THE DEEP: The Titanic Expeditions ⭐️
By James Cameron et al.
Having taken more than 30 dives to the wreck of the Titanic, James Cameron has probably gained more firsthand insight into the sinking of the ship than any person today. In this heavily illustrated volume, he provides a thrilling account of those remarkable expeditions and the incredible technological innovations that made them possible. 252 pages. Insight Editions. 11½x10. Paperbound. Pub. at $29.99.

⭐️ WHEN AMERICA FIRST MET CHINA: An Exotic History of Tea, Drugs, and Money in the Age of Sail ⭐️
By Eric Jay Dolin.
Illuminates one of the least understood areas of American history as it traces our fraught relationship with China back to its roots: the unforgiving 19th-century seas that separated a brash, rising naval power from a battered ancient empire. Illus. 394 pages. Liveright. Paperbound. Pub. at $16.95.

⭐️ THE CUTTY SARK POCKET MANUAL ⭐️
By A. Hewett & L. Macdonald.
Conducted on the Clyde in 1869 for Jack Willis Shipping Line, Cutty Sark was one of the last tea clippers to be built and one of the fastest. This manual tells the story of how this legendary ship was commissioned, her design and building, life on board and some of her notable journeys. Illus. 138 pages. Osprey. Pub. at $15.00.

⭐️ TITANICA: The Disaster of the Century in Poetry, Song, and Prose ⭐️
Edited by Steven Biel.
A collection of sermons, editorials, poems, songs, and ads that tell of individual responses to the sinking of the Titanic. An invaluable resource for anyone who wants to understand what people then and now have made of this unforgettable tragedy. 202 pages. Norton. Paperbound. Pub. at $11.00.

⭐️ A SOCIETY OF GENTLEMEN: Midshipmen at the U.S. Naval Academy, 1845-1861 ⭐️
By Mark C. Hunter.
The author makes a significant contribution to the understanding of the evolution of professional standards in the U.S. armed forces with this social history of U.S. naval officer education at Annapolis. Also provides insight into the personal lives of these young officers. 233 pages.
Naval Institute. Paperbound. Pub. at $34.95.

⭐️ THE BUCCANEER EXPLORER: William Dampier’s Voyages ⭐️
By Gerald Norris.
William Dampier (1652-1715) is the most remarkable seaman that England produced in the century and a half between Drake and Captain Cook. A good seaman, but a bad commander, he spent most of his life as a privateer, buccaneer, or pirate. This edited collection of his voyages gives an admirable picture of this fascinating and unorthodox figure in his own words. Illus. 268 pages. Boydell. Paperbound. Pub. at $23.95.

⭐️ FIFTY SHIPS THAT CHANGED THE COURSE OF HISTORY: A Nautical History of the World ⭐️
By Ian Graham.
No technology has had more profound an impact on mankind than watercraft. Illustrated with historic artwork and archival imagery, this fascinating story explores the emotional undercurrents that led to the dandiavel voyage–to become the first to cross the treacherous North Atlantic via raft. <td>LEPROSY IN MEDIEVAL ENGLAND</td>
<td>By Carole Rawcliffe</td>
<td>Set firmly in the medical, religious and cultural milieu of the European middle ages, this is the first serious study of leprosy in medieval England to be published. With con carne, leprosy is a disease surrounded by fear and superstition. It thrived under the conditions of medieval life and yet, surprisingly, was not considered a punishment from God. Leprosy was seen as a form of degeneration, a reward for sin and a warning to the healthy to avoid vice.</td>

⭐ ARTHUR AND THE KINGS OF BRITAIN: The Historical Truth Behind the Myths by Miles Russell. The Historia Regum Britanniae written in 1136 by Geoffrey of Monmouth, has long been dismissed as an unreliable piece of medieval propaganda. A new examination of the text, however, shows that it’s much more than that. Geoffrey created a national epic, and in doing so, created King Arthur, a composite character whose true origins are explained here. 16 pages of illus., some color. 320 pages. Amberley. Paperbound. Pub. at $14.95. Item #2820587 $11.95

BEDA: A Journey Through the Seven Kingdoms in the Age of Bede by Henrietta Leyser. A distinguished medievalist travels through the seven Anglo-Saxon kingdoms that mattered most to Bede; the Northumbrian monk and polymath, and England’s first great historian turns his attention to Richard’s eldest brother, Edward IV and unravels the complex web of stories around Edward’s private life, discussing the truth behind Edward’s reputation. Did Edward have numerous mistresses? Did he produce many bastards? Who was his legal wife? And what caused the early death of Eleanor Talbot, reputed to be his wife? 308 pages. Amberley. Paperbound.
