American Regional & Local Histories

- VANISHING ANN ARBOR by FF. Smith & B. Woodman. Ann Arbor has seen many cherished landmarks and institutions come and go, and as the town became a thriving city, residents passed their time seeing movies at the Majestic or watching parades go down Main Street. Join the authors on a tour of the city’s past. Photos. 158 pages. History Press. Paperbound. Pub. at $21.99. Item #3772179

- OCEAN-BORN MARY: The Truth Behind a New Hampshire Legend by Jeremy D’Entremont. Meet Mary, ocean born and named by an infamous pirate. Her birth saved a group of Scottish immigrants aboard a ship bound for New England in 1720. The ship arrived safely and Mary lived her life in New Hampshire. Discover the house that Mary is said to haunt and where a pirate treasure is stashed, as the author examines this fantastic folk legend. History Press. Paperbound. Pub. at $19.99. Item #2946033

- HIDDEN HISTORY OF NEW ORLEANS by J. Foreman & R. Starrett. The history of New Orleans is one of contrasts—heroes and villains, catastrophe and celebration, sinners and saints. From the streetcar strikers who lined the thoroughfares with IEDs to the unsung heroine of the Battle of New Orleans, the authors offer a dose of history that would be hard to believe if it wasn’t true. Illus. Paperbound. Pub. at $23.95. Item #3843203

- HYDE PARK IN THE GILDED AGE by C. Rhinevault & S. Butler. Hyde Park was established in 1821 as a simple and small town on the Hudson River. Its claim to fame however are the grand estates, lush landscapes, and lavish lifestyles of some of those who lived there. The former town historian has compiled wonderful images from both sides of the story in and around the town during the Gilded Age. 128 pages. Arcadia Publishing. Paperbound. Pub. at $21.99. Item #3774171

DEFEATING THE DEAD
By Don Herzog
This persuasive argument, that the deceased’s interests should be protected, starts out with a simple, seemingly arcane question—can you libel or slander the dead?—and develops it outward. Herzog, a legal scholar, considers what tort law is actually designed to protect, and what difference death does and does not make. 270 pages. Yale. Pub. at $40.00
Item #3687325

THE SNAIL DARTER AND THE DAM: How Pork-Barrel Politics Endangered a Little Fish and Killed a River
By Zygmunt J.B. Plater
Thirty years after the legal battles to save the snail darter, the little fish that blocked completion of a TVA dam is still invoked as an icon of governmental foolishness. The lawyer who fought and won the Supreme Court case tells the story behind one of the most significant environmental law battles. Photos. 369 pages. Yale. Paperbound. Pub. at $25.00

American Political History

★ PRESIDENTS OF WAR: The Epic Story, from 1807 to Modern Times By Michael Beschloss. An intimate and irresistibly readable chronicle of the Chief Executives who took the United States into conflict and mobilized it for victory. From the War of 1812 to Vietnam, we see these leaders considering the difficult decision to send hundreds of thousands of Americans to their deaths; Congress, seek comfort from family, and fail to pray. 32 pages of photos, some color. 740 pages. Broadway. Paperbound. Pub. at $20.00 Item #377663 $14.95

★ THE HOUR OF FATE: Theodore Roosevelt, J.P. Morgan, and the Battle to Transform American Capitalism By Susan Berfield. A riveting narrative of Wall Street buccaneering, political intrigue, and two of America’s most colossal characters, struggling for mastery in an era of social upheaval and rampant inequality. Today, the lessons of Roosevelt and Morgan’s time are more urgent than ever. Illus. 394 pages. Bloomsbury. Pub. at $30.00 Item #3909247 $21.95

★ THE PRESIDENTS: Noted Historians Rank America’s Best—and Worst—Chief Executives By Brian Lamb et al. From Abraham Lincoln’s political savvy and rhetorical gifts to James Buchanan’s indecisiveness, this fascinating analysis teaches much about what makes a great leader, and what does not. The authors demonstrate how ineffective leaders can leave the nation floundering while good ones can set us right. Illus. 523 pages. PublicAffairs. Pub. at $32.00 Item #2958767 $23.95

★ THE CASE FOR IMPEACHMENT By Allan J. Lichtman. Offers a fascinating look at presidential impeachments throughout American history, including the often-overlooked story of Andrew Johnson’s impeachment, details about Richard Nixon’s resignation, and Bill Clinton’s hearings. Lichtman also lays out in clear, nonpartisan terms, the reasons Congress could remove Trump from the Oval Office. 298 pages. Dey Street. Paperbound. Pub. at $14.99 Item #6925103 $3.95

★ BEHOLD, AMERICA By Sarah Churchwell. Offers a surprising and vividly rendered account of twentieth century Americans’ fierce battle for the nation’s soul. It follows the stories of two phrases, the ‘American dream’ and ‘America First,’ that emerged in tandem near the turn of the century and once emboldened opposing visions for America. A riveting look at our past and our future. Photos. 348 pages. Basic. Pub. at $32.00 Item #2807866 $15.95

International Political History

A KINGDOM OF THEIR OWN: The Family Karzai and the Afghan Disaster By Joshua Partlow. The key to understanding the calamitous Afghan war is the complex, ultimately failed relationship between the powerful, duplicitous Karzai family and the United States, brilliantly portrayed here by the former Kabul bureau chief for the Washington Post. Photos. 402 pages. Bloomsbury. Paperbound. Pub. at $24.95.

LIFE AND CAMPAIGNS OF THE BLACK PRINCE By Richard Barber. Edward of Woodstock, eldest son of Edward III, known as the Black Prince, is one of those heroes of history books so impressive as to seem slightly unreal. His exploits were chronicled by Jean Froissart, writing three or four decades after the events he describes. There are other sources much closer to the events, and it is on these that the present volume draws. Illus. 139 pages. Boydell. Paperbound. Pub. at $24.95.

MEMORIES AFTER MY DEATH: The Story of My Father, Joseph “Tommy” Lapid By Yair Lapid. Tommy Lapid, a well-loved and controversial Israeli figure, witnessed the development of the country from all angles during its first sixty years, from seeing his father taken away to a concentration camp to arriving in Tel Avir at the birth of Israel. This sweeping narrative will captivate readers with its nuanced descriptions of father, son, and country. 330 pages. Thomas Dunne Books. Pub. at $27.99.

PRINCE OF WALES: The Life and Private Passions of Edward VII By Michael Cronin. In the early 20th century, nobody knew more about Edward VII than his official biographer. This is the first biography to consider his life and private passions as much as his public achievements. 384 pages. History Press. Paperbound. Pub. at $21.95.

ELIZABETH WARREN: Her Fight, Her Work, Her Life By Antonia Felix. The story of a young woman’s coming of age, of the motivations behind her career turnaround toward politics, and of the realities of serving in Congress. Warren’s life offers a unique look at how we frame our national identity in a time of deep political and social divisions. Photos, some color. 359 pages. Sourcebooks. Pub. at $25.99.

RICHARD II: Fact and Fiction By Matt Lewis. In the fictional portrayal of Richard, he is the evil, scheming murderer who reveils in his plots, but many of the facts point towards a very different man. Richard III may have been a controversial, but just a man trying to survive, and in this fascinating volume, Lewis separates the facts from the fiction to help to discover the true King Richard. Illus. 193 pages. Rowman & Littlefield. Pub. at $19.95.

COLONIAL MANDARIN: The Life and Times of Alexander Macleay By James Donaldson. Plants a strong portrait of a man who became Colonial Secretary for New South Wales in 1825; became a major administrative, scientific, cultural and philanthropic contributor in the developing colony, and whose scientific curiosity made his insect collection one of the most extensive in the world. 367 pages. Austin Macauley. Paperbound. Pub. at $15.95.

JAMES I: The Phoenix King By Thomas Cogswell. Tells the story of James’s personal life and private passions as much as his public achievements. James was often accused of being too informal and insufficiently regal, but when his son Charles I decided to redress these criticisms in his own reign, he was destroyed. This is a vivid portrait of an often underappreciated monarch. Color illus. 109 pages. Penguin. Pub. at $21.95.

CREDO? Religion and Psychoanalysis By Patrick Casmont. Casmont tries to answer the questions: What is it that lies beyond our knowing, beyond our imagination and beyond our understanding; beyond the reach of either science or philosophy? Might there be some unimaginable energy, some incompressible wise and purpose, that will forever remain beyond our understanding? 72 pages. Aeon. Paperbound. Pub. at $14.95

THE COMPANY SHE KEEPS: The Medieval Swedish Cult of Saint Katherine of Alexandria and Its Transformations By Tracey R. Sands. Sands attempts to answer questions about Saint Katherine like: How did this Mediterranean saint—a Greek-speaking princess or queen of Alexandria—come to be one of the most beloved saints in a cold and remote northern region? And how did a figure renowned for her learning become an intercessor for people whose access to the written word was limited? This study provides some fascinating insights. Illus. 276 pages. ACMRS. Pub. at $55.00

HOW TRADITION WORKS: A Meme-Based Cultural Poetics of the Anglo-Saxon Tenth Century By Michael D.C. Drout. Examines the ways traditions are created, constituted, modified, and recognized. Expanding and revising “memetic” theory, the analysis considers the culture of the tenth-century English Benedictine Reform. Drout shows how this flowering of culture can be traced to the reliance by Anglo-Saxon monks upon unchanging written rules—the Rule of St. Benedict and the Regulans Concordia. 333 pages. ACMRS. Pub. at $47.00

GOD: A Human History By Reza Aslan. Explores humanity’s quest to make sense of the divine and sounds a call to embrace a deeper understanding of God. With thoughtful, accessible scholarship, Aslan narrates the history of religion as one long and remarkably cohesive attempt to know the divine by giving it human traits and emotions. 296 pages. Random. Paperbound. Pub. at $18.00

THE HANDY CHRISTIANITY ANSWER BOOK By Stephen A. Werner. An accessible, enlightening, and informative look at one of the world’s most important religions. This handy tome clearly explains how different Christians think and describes the historical schisms and divisions among different denominations. Learn about the teachings of Jesus, the Bible, Christian celebrations, sacraments, and more. Illus. 400 pages. Visible Ink. Paperbound. Pub. at $21.95

A SHORT HISTORY OF MEDIEVAL CHRISTIANITY By G.R. Evans. Ranging widely, from the fall of Rome to the innovative ideas of the Reformation, the author addresses vital topics like the appeal of monasticism, the lure of the Crusades, the rise of the triads and the acute crisis of heresy. As the author reveals, medieval Christianity was shaped above all by its promise of salvation or eternal perdition. 252 pages. I.B. Tauris. Paperbound. Pub. at $17.95

FAITH ED: Teaching About Religion in an Age of Intolerance By Linda K. Wertheimer. The results of a veteran education journalist’s travels to communities around the nation, listening to voices on all sides of the controversy surrounding teaching religion in public schools and interviewing clergy, teachers, children, and parents who are Muslim, Jewish, Christian, Sikh, or atheist. 220 pages. Beacon. Paperbound. Pub. at $19.00

GOD: A New Biography By Philip C. Almond. Expertly placing the narrative of divine presence within the wider history of ideas, Almond demonstrates that the notion of a deity has been the single greatest conundrum of medieval and modern civilization. In this rich, nuanced appraisal, God is shown to be more complex and fascinating than ever before. 16 pages of color illus., 274 pages. I.B. Tauris. Pub. at $29.95

THE MYSTERY OF THE SEMIHOTH By Jonathan Cahn. Cahn asks the question: Is it possible that there exists a 3,000 year old mystery that has been determining the course of your life without your knowing it? He then sets out to illuminate what holds the key to what lies ahead for the world and for your life, based on biblical prophecy. Illus. 275 pages. Frontline. Paperbound. Pub. at $16.99

FRIENDSHIP IN THE HEBREW BIBLE By Saul M. Olyan. In this thorough and compelling assessment, Olyan analyzes a wide range of texts, including prose narratives, prophetic materials, psalms, pre-Hellenistic wisdom collections, and the Hellenistic-era wisdom book Ben Sira. This in-depth study explores how the expectations and experiences of friends and family members overlap and differ. 191 pages. I.B. Tauris. Paperbound. Pub. at $19.99

BELIEVE: And Why God’s Truth Is Infinitely Better By Shane Pruitt. Tackles popular one-liners that have wormed their way into our Christian vernacular, including “God gained another angel,” “Follow your heart,” and “God just wants me to be happy.” Instead we should focus our minds on the Word of God, because Scripture offers more than one-liners intended to comfort; it offers an invitation to know God Himself. 212 pages. Multnomah. Paperbound. Pub. at $15.99

THE GOD’S FAVORITES: Judaism, Christianity, and the Myth of Divine Chosenness By Michael Coogan. Examines the temporally layered and allusive storytelling of biblical texts and describes the world of the ancient Near East from which it emerged, laying bare the power struggles and persecutions made sacred by claims of chosenness. Coogan demystifies religious texts, both in their original contexts and in their afterlives, and demands that our actions be based on clear moral thinking. 170 pages. Beacon. Pub. at $24.95

IT’S A MIRACLE! What Modern Science Tells Us About Popular Bible Stories By Clay Carris Naft. Christians often use the Bible as a guide to the natural world, which inevitably leads them to reject much of what science says about the universe. But what if we were to use science as a guide to the Bible? Naft brings the miracles of the Bible into sharp focus through the lens of modern science. 240 pages. Pitchstone. Paperbound. Pub. at $15.95

THE GENESIS GENEALOGIES: God’s Administration in the History of Redemption By Abraham Park. A complete chronological Biblical timeline from Adam to the Exodus, including the duration of construction of Noah’s ark. British History

THE TEMPTATION OF ELIZABETH Tudor by Elizabeth Norton. The Tudor court in the wake of Henry VIII’s death had never been more perilous for the young Elizabeth, as the infamous “Seymour Scandal” wielded the power to determine her fate. It was a time when she would show the shrewdness and spirit she would later be known for—a spirit captured in Norton’s spellbinding work. 324 pages. Prentice Hall. Pub. at $16.95.

IMPERIAL LEGACIES: The British Empire Around the World by Jeremy Black. The reality of being top dog is that everybody hates you. In this provocative work, Black shows how criticisms of the legacy of the British Empire are, in part, criticisms of the reality of American power today. He offers a wide-ranging and vigorous assault on political correctness, its language, misuse of the past, and grasping of both present and future. 199 pages. Encounter Books. Pub. at $25.99.

THE KING’S WAR by P. Conradi & M. Logue. This gripping narrative provides a fascinating portrait of two men and their respective families—the Windsors and the Logues—as they together face the greatest challenge in Britain’s history. This is the eagerly anticipated sequel to The King’s Speech. Photos. 302 pages. Pegasus. Pub. at $27.95.

THE GUNPOWDER PLOT DECEIT by Marlyn R. Beardsley. Presents the story of the Gunpowder Plot, and how a bloody catastrophe was averted at the eleventh hour when Guy Fawkes was caught lurking beneath the House of Parliament. This account explores the idea that the government was only aware of what the plotters were up to, but that agent provocateurs may have helped them or even instigated the plot. Pen & Sword. Paperbound. Pub. at $24.95.

This volume restores the rising to its rightful place in history, offering an incisive account of the rising itself and the events which led to it, while capturing the extraordinary heroism of its leaders, John Baird and Andrew Hardie, and the savagery with which the movement was crushed by the forces of the state. Brill. Paperbound. Pub. at $21.95.

MY KINGDOM FOR A HORSE: The War of the Roses By Ed West. Written in the spirit of a black comedy this is an ideal introduction for anyone interested in one of history’s most bizarre wars. West features some of history’s most infamous figures including the insane King Henry VI, whose madness triggered the breakdown, and the wicked Richard III, who murdered his nephews to take the throne.

EMPEROR by Peter Leslie. The story of the important relationship between Emperor Haile Selassie of Ethiopia and Sir Edwin Chapman-Andrews, a British diplomat. Its duration lasted no less than 45 years from Haile Selassie’s coronation in 1930 until his tragic murder in 1975. 16 pages of photos. 211 pages. Pen & Sword.

THE REGENCY YEARS by Robert Morrison. With the British military in foreign lands, fighting the Napoleonic Wars in Europe and the War of 1812 in the United States, the desire for empire and an expanding colonial enterprise gained unstoppable momentum. Exploring these crosscurrents, Morrison illuminates the profound ways this period shaped and indelibly marked the modern world. Illus. 366 pages. Norton. Pub. at $29.95.

EUROPE RESSET: New Directions for the EU by Richard Youngs. Proposes an alternative vision of European co-operation and shows how the E.U. must re-invent itself if it is to survive. In proposing this model for a “reset” version of Europe, Youngs reinvigorates the debate on the future of Europe by putting forward a new agenda for the E.U. 242 pages. I.B. Tauris. Paperbound. Pub. at $28.00.

BLOOD ROSES: The Houses of Lancaster and York Before the Wars of the Roses by Kathryn Warner. Starting in 1245 with the founding of the House of Lancaster, the author follows over 200 years of political intrigue, bloody wars and fascinating characters. This account reframes some of the biggest events of the medieval era; not as stand alone conflicts, but as part of a long running family feud that lasted for centuries. Photos. 368 pages. Press. Pub. at $34.95.

TALES FROM THE BIG HOUSE: Nostell Priory By Michael J. Rochford. An exciting tour de force through some of the history of Nostell Priory, and the owners and their servants that made this great house their home.

THE STATE OF WAR: MS-13 and El Salvador’s World of Violence by William Wheeler. In the 1980s, the U.S. supported the repressive Salvadoran government in a brutal civil war, and many Salvadoran families fled to America, especially Los Angeles. Wheeler makes clear why Salvadoreans are fleeing their country, and why Trump’s harsh immigration and asylum policies may only empower the gangs more. 139 pages. Columbia Global Reports. Paperbound. Pub. at $15.99.

This is the author’s story, of how he discovered his gift for communicating with the spirit world and how she learned to accept it and use it to help those in need, ridding them of their emotional and physical pain, and getting at the root causes of their pain. It gives us a unique look at demonology. 270 pages. Day Street. Paperbound. Pub. at $19.95

The Mighty Franks: A Memoir  By Michael Frank. The author’s family was uncommonly close, and in that strangely intertwined world, a singularly polarizing figure, Frank’s aunt Hankie, and the man that he would become, will speak to any reader who has ever struggled to find an independent voice amid the turbulence of family life. 304 pages. FSG. Pub. at $26.00

I Found My Tribe: A Memoir  By Ruth Fitzmaurice. Ruth’s transformational and euphoric memoir is an invitation to all of us to love as hard as we can and live even harder. As she tells her story of her marriage, from her husband’s diagnosis of ALS to their long-standing precarious situation, Fitzmaurice also charts her passion for swimming in the wild Irish Sea. 213 pages. Bloomsbury. Pub. at $25.00

Subway to California  By Joseph Di Prisco. His father was a gambler and bookmaker who fled Brooklyn and the FBI. Joe didn’t seem called to a life of crime, but evidence is mixed. Once he was Brother Joseph in a Catholic novitiate, and later he was named prime suspect in a racketeering investigation. He played blackjack around the world, and also taught for 20 years. His richly colorful tale reads like great Rare Bird Books. Paperbound. Pub. at $15.95
