Lost Kingdom: Hawai'i's Last Queen, the Sugar Kings, and America's First Imperial Adventure
By Julia Flynn Siler. First colonized around AD 200 by intrepid Polynesian islanders who set off in double-rigger canoes and paddled thousands of miles across the Pacific Ocean. Until they reached the Hawaiian archipelago, Hawai'i existed for hundreds of years in splendid isolation. A sweeping and fascinating account of Hawai'i's turbulent history. 16 pages of photos. 415 pages. Atlantic Monthly. Paperbound. Pub. at $17.00 Item #2847998 $4.95

Highway 99: The History of California's Main Street
By Stephen H. Provost. Illustrated throughout with historical photographs, this fascinating, fun-filled volume documents the birth, growth and transformation of Highway 99—and the communities, personalities, and historical events that made their mark along its long and historic stretch. 270 pages. Craven Street. 8½x10. Paperbound. Pub. at $18.95 Item #6998247 $13.95

Martha's Vineyard Tales: From Pirates on Lake Tashmoo to Baxter's Saloon
By Chris Bar. This collection of stories and unique historical photographs paints a picture of the Vineyard through time. Discover the real stories that make up the island’s past. These little known tales await Vineyard history enthusiasts. 229 pages. Globe Pequot. Pub. at $22.00 Item #6885969 $16.95

Lost America: Breaking History
By Don Rauf. An illustrated look at fascinating places that have existed only in myth and have never been found, those that were abandoned and why, and those that were lost to social upheaval or natural disaster. This resource also includes places that were thought to exist, but did not: legendary Norse settlements, lost cities of gold, and the Fountain of Youth. 238 pages. Lyons. Pub. at $27.95 Item #2668773 $21.95

The Devil's Mile: The Rich, Gritty History of the Bowery
By Alice Sparberg Alexiou. The author tells the story of the Bowery, starting with its origins, when forests covered the surrounding area, and through the pre-Civil War years, when country estates of wealthy New Yorkers lined this thoroughfare, and ending her historical exploration of this famous street in the present. Illus. 290 pages. at $28.99 Item #6945526 $21.95

Endless Caverns: An Underground Journey into the Show Caves of Appalachia
By Douglas Reichert Powell. Show caves, as Powell explains in this fascinating analysis, are at once predictable and astonishing, ancient and modern, eerie and sentimental. Their story sparks memories of a fleeting cool moment deep underground during a hot summer vacation, capturing in microcosm the bottle-necked development of a new era. Illus. 218 pages. UNCP. Item #2815966 $23.95

Chesapeake Requiem: A Year with the Watermen of Vanishing Tangier Island
By Earl Swift. Takes an intimate look at the past, present, and tenuous future of Tangier Island, Virginia, and sounds a warning on the coming fate of countless coastal communities. Swift reveals in this informative work that this storied place will likely succumb first among U.S. towns to the effects of climate change. Photos. 434 pages. Dey Street. Pub. at $28.99 Item #6932783 $21.95

America's First Factory Town: The Industrial Revolution in Maryland's Patapsco River Valley
By Henry K. Sharp. Convincingly demonstrates how the Eliot Brothers created America's first industrial town modeled on the Quaker concept of community. After years of extensive research, Sharp has reconstructed the story of this once-thriving region—and its ultimate destruction in two terrifying floods. Illus., one color, 148 pages. Chesapeake Book Company. 8½x11. Paperbound. Pub. at $25.00 Item #6793258 $17.95

Millways of Kent
By John Kenneth Morland. Originally published in 1958, this account tells the plight of working families in the mill village, their daily joys and disappointments, and the governing call of the mill whistle that are all brought vibrantly to life through Morland’s words, creating a powerful, detailed snapshot of an American subculture that no longer exists. 18 pages of photos. at $16.95 Item #573990X $5.95

First Impressions: A Reader’s Journey to Iconic Places of the American Southwest
By D.J. Weber & W. deBuyo. The history and culture of the American Southwest, as seen through the eyes of the explorers, missionaries, and travelers who were the first non-natives to describe them. A unique guide to fifteen iconic sites across Arizona, New Mexico, southern Utah and southern Colorado. 341 pages. Yale. Pub. at $30.00 Item #5686702 $24.95

The Fever of 1721: The Epidemic That Revolutionized Medicine and American Politics
By Stephen Cozz. The Boston smallpox epidemic of 1721 was the catalyst for the invention of American journalism, the coming of age of Benjamin Franklin, and the beginning of American independence. It was also a turning point in the eradication of history’s deadliest disease. Here, Cozz interweaves those threads for a compelling account of the epidemic that changed a nation. S&S. Paperbound. Pub. at $17.00 Item #68954X $4.95

Grown-up Anger: The Connected Mysteries of Bob Dylan, Woody Guthrie, and the Calumet Massacre of 1913
By Daniel Wolff. While chronicling the story of Woody Guthrie, Bob Dylan, and the 1913 massacre (after a union Christmas party) in Calumet, Michigan, Wolff reveals the struggles between the haves and the have-nots. The battle to organize American workers and the way two musicians used their fury to illuminate injustice and spark hope is the subject of this probe. 354 pages. HarperCollins. Pub. at $26.99 Item #6912761 $4.95

Brahearts: Whistle-Blowing in the Age of Snowden
By Mark Hertsgaard. Whistle-blowers who refuse to back down in the face of ludicrous official retaliation, generally end up ruined. This moral stubbornness is the defining DNA of whistle-blowers, and this volume tells the gripping, sometimes darkly comic stories of these unheroic heroes. 164 pages. Hot Books. Pub. at $21.99 Item #9400192 $4.95

Pain Killer: An Empire of Deceit and the Origin of America’s Opioid Epidemic
By Barry Meier. This updated edition breaks new ground in Meier’s decades-long investigation into the opioid epidemic. He takes readers inside Purdue to show how long the company withheld information about the abuse of OxyContin and gives a shocking account of the Justice Department’s failure to alter the trajectory of the opioid epidemic and protect thousands of lives. 223 pages. Random. Pub. at $27.00 Item #9057801 $5.95

General American History

- OUR FAMILY DREAMS: The Fletchers’ Adventures in Nineteenth-Century America by Daniel Blake Smith.
  - Vividly brings to life the Fletchers, a 19th-century family of loving, ambitious, and at times insecure pioneers who stumbled across the expanse of post-Revolutionary America. Through their letters and diaries, this novel-like narrative amplifies a period that nurtured the American frontier.
  - 250 pages. UMaP. Paperbound. Pub. at $28.95

- LINCOLN’S FINAL HOURS: Conspiracy, Terror, and the Assassination of America’s Greatest President by Kathryn Canavan.
  - With vivid, thoroughly researched prose and a journalist’s eye for detail, Canavan places readers in the midst of history, recounting the events surrounding the president’s horrifying death. Through her careful narration of the twists of fate that placed the president in harm’s way, Canavan illustrates how the experiences of a single night changed the course of history.
  - Photos. 233 pages. UPky. Pub. at $29.95

- DEAD DISTILLERS by C. Spoelman & D. Haskell.
  - Presents the entertaining history and biographies of more than 50 figures from the bygone days of distilling including farmers, scientists, entrepreneurs, criminals, and the occasional U.S. president. Includes vintage photos and walking tour maps, as well as noteworthy newspaper clippings.
  - 221 pages. Abrams. Pub. at $24.95

- LIFE IN A CALIFORNIA MISSION by Jean Francois de La Perouse.
  - Originally published under the title Monterey in 1786: The Journals of Jean Francois de La Perouse.
  - The author’s observations provide a startling portrait of California from the dawn of the modern world.
  - Paperback. Pub. at $12.00

- THEY CAME FOR FREEDOM: The Forgotten, Epic Adventure of the Pilgrims by Jay Milbrandt.
  - Beginning with the execution of two pastors for daring to follow their faith, the Pilgrims’ great journey was one of courageous faith, daring escape, and tenuous survival.
  - Paperback. Pub. at $16.95

- BLACKFEET INDIAN STORIES by George Bird Grinnell.
  - Like many native people, the Blackfeet have stories and legends that originated centuries ago, perhaps thousands of years ago, and were passed down from generation through an oral tradition. Early explorers, like George Bird Grinnell, heard the stories directly from the Blackfeet and wrote them down.
  - Collected here are these stories.

- CORRUPTION IN AMERICA: From Benjamin Franklin’s Snuff Box to Citizens United by Zephry Teachout.
  - A study of the fear of possible corruption in American politics. Focusing on the Citizens United decision, corporations giving the right to spend unlimited money to influence elections, this study shows why it was bad law and bad history. 376 pages.

- BORDER BANDITS, BORDER RAIDS by W.C. Jameson.
  - In the late 19th and early 20th centuries, the border between Texas and Mexico was fluid and hotly contested by citizens on both sides. Presented here is a fascinating account of the skirmishes, battles, and conflicts that ignited in an era before checkpoints were regularized and hostility can rampant. Drawings. 166 pages.

- BELLEVUE: Three Centuries of Medicine and Mayhem at America’s Most Storied Hospital by David Oshinsky.
  - Presents a sweeping and at times horrifying chronicle of Bellevue Hospital’s rise from wretched almshouse infirmary—a place where a patient was more likely to leave in a coffin than to be cured—to a revered public hospital and premier trauma center for visiting world leaders. 174 pages.

- OLD WORLD TRAITS TRANPLANTED by William Isaac Thomas et al.
  - Originally written as part of the Carnegie Corporation’s Americanization Studies in 1921, this work remains one of the classics in the field of acculturation studies. 315 pages.

- FOUNDING MYTHS, REVISED EDITION: Stories That Hide Our Patriotic Past by Ray Raphael.
  - In this revised and expanded anniversary edition, the author revisits the original myths and further explores their evolution over time, uncovering new stories and peeling back new layers of misinformation. This new edition also examines the current highly politicized debates over America’s past. Illus. 420 pages.

- THE COSMOPOLITAN LYCEUM: Lecture Culture and the Globe in Nineteenth-Century America ed. by Tom F. Wright.
  - The “lyceum movement” that flourished from the 1830s to the 1900s is the subject of this study, which offers a major reassessment of this important cultural phenomenon. The twelve essays presented use a range of approaches, cover a wide chronological timespan, and discuss a variety of performers both famous and obscure.

Constitutional & Judicial Issues

COURT-MARTIAL: How Military Justice Has Shaped America from the Revolution to 9/11 and Beyond by Chris Bray. Tells the sweeping story of military justice from the earliest days of the republic to contemporary arguments. Bray documents the many ways that the separate justice system of the armed forces has served as a proxy for America’s ongoing debates over equality, privacy, discrimination, security, and liberty. 398 pages. Norton. Pub. at $28.95

Politics

CLEAN HOUSE: Exposing Our Government’s Secrets and Lies by Tom Fitton. Devastatingly reveals the truth behind the lie of Obama’s famous claim that his administration would be “the most transparent administration ever.” Instead, Fitton argues for the opposite: Obama’s two terms were the most obstructionist, opaque, and scandalous in history. 292 pages. Paperbound. Pub. at $16.00

THE END OF WHITE CHRISTIAN AMERICA by Robert P. Jones. Drawing on findings from one of the largest troves of survey data on contemporary politics and religion, Jones shows how today’s most heated political controversies can be fully understood only in the context of the anxieties that white Christians feel as the cultural landscape has changed around them. 322 pages. S&S. Pub. at $17.00

50 POLITICS CLASSICS by Tom Butler-Bowdon. Gain the insights of great political philosophers and leaders. Explores the major writings of political leaders, philosophers, and activists, spanning over 2,000 years. With insightful commentaries on the texts and biographies that have shaped history, it serves as an illuminating introduction to politics and political philosophy. 328 pages. Nicholas Brealey. Paperbound. Pub. at $19.95

THE GILDED RAGE: A Wild Ride Through Donald Trump’s America by Alexander Zaltchik. A gripping, intimate, heart-breaking portrait of the walking wounded who make up the base of the Trump movement. Wounded America has found its champion, someone to roar as loudly as they feel. It’s not the Orange Messiah we need to listen to however—it’s these fellow Americans. 127 pages. Skyhorse. Pub. at $21.99

WHISTLE STOP by Philip White. A micro-history of the summer and fall of 1948, when Truman took to the rails, crisscrossing the country from June right up to Election Day. The tour and the campaign culminated with the iconic image of a grinning, victorious Truman holding aloft the famous Chicago Tribune headline: “Dewey Defeats Truman.” 16 pages of photos. 314 pages. ForeEdge. Pub. at $22.95

WOMEN & THE VOTE: A World History by Jad Adams. A comprehensive history of how women won the vote. Adams takes the story of women in politics from the earliest times to the present day, from ancient Greece to the Muslim world post 9/11. Illus. 516 pages. Oxford. Pub. at $49.95

FIVE DOLLARS AND A PORK CHOP SANDWICH: Vote Buying and the Corruption of Democracy by Mary Frances Berry. Focuses on electoral corruption including vote buying, vote hauling, the abuse of absentee ballots, and other illegal practices by candidates and their middle men that occur across party lines and often in collusion with local election officials. 186 pages. Beacon. Paperbound. Pub. at $18.00

THE CONQUEST OF BREAD by Peter Kropotkin. Fired by anger at injustice but also filled with a profound optimism about human altruism, much of it based on Kropotkin’s (1842-1921) own scientific research, this volume forces us to imagine how society might be different. 221 pages. Penguin. Paperbound. Pub. at $17.00

NO HOPE: Why I Left the GOP (and You Should Too) by Jimmy L. LaSalle. A behind the scenes look at how the GOP is out of touch with Americans today and why more voters should consider “no party”. In this tell-all political outing, LaSalle breaks apart the current two-party system to help energize democracy. 16 pages of color photos. 210 pages. Skyhorse. Pub. at $24.99

RONALD REAGAN by Mary Frances Berry. Appointed U.S. Attorney for the State of New Jersey by George W. Bush, Christie initiated “Big Rig,” a series of criminal investigations into political corruption. Revealing the operation as a means to wipe out competition, Manzo tells his story of being unfairly attacked by Christie’s machinations of political intimidation. Photos. 324 pages. Trine Day. Pub. at $24.95

ALTER EGOS by Mark Landler. With the grand sweep of history and the pointillist detail of an account based on insider access, Landler offers the definitive account of a complex, profoundly important relationship between Barack Obama and Hillary Clinton. It follows their evolution from bitter rivals to wary partners, and then to something resembling rivals again. 406 pages. Random. Pub. at $28.00

LET THE PEOPLE RULE: Theodore Roosevelt and the Birth of the Presidential Primary by Geoffrey Cowan. Tells the exhilarating story of the four-month campaign that changed American politics forever, when in 1912, Theodore Roosevelt came out of retirement to challenge his close friend and handpicked successor, William Howard Taft, for the Republican Party nomination. Photos. 404 pages. Norton. Pub. at $27.95

MR. TRUMP GOES TO WASHINGTON by Michael Mayor. Much to his and the rest of the world’s surprise, Donald Trump was elected President of the United States. This is the story, told in pictures so that he can read it himself, of how he got there, and what happened when Mr. Trump went to Washington. The author does not envisage it ending well. Fully illus. in color. Belvedere. Pub. at $12.99

THE GILDED RAGE: A Wild Ride Through Donald Trump’s America by Alexander Zaltchik. A gripping, intimate, heart-breaking portrait of the walking wounded who make up the base of the Trump movement. Wounded America has found its champion, someone to roar as loudly as they feel. It’s not the Orange Messiah we need to listen to however—it’s these fellow Americans. 127 pages. Skyhorse. Pub. at $21.99

WAKE UP AMERICA: The Nine Virtues That Made Our Nation Great—and Why We Need Them More Than Ever by Eric Bolling. Grit, merit, providence, individualism, thrift, and above all, pride in our country: in a time when these virtues have fallen under attack by the radical Left, Bolling demonstrates why each one is so important to our history and our future as a nation. 226 pages. St. Marlin’s. Pub. at $25.99

THE FIFTH HOLOCAUST: The War on Christianity by Philip White. A micro-history of the summer and fall of 1948, when Truman took to the rails, crisscrossing the country from June right up to Election Day. The tour and the campaign culminated with the iconic image of a grinning, victorious Truman holding aloft the famous Chicago Tribune headline: “Dewey Defeats Truman.” 16 pages of photos. 314 pages. Politics

HUGH HEWITT'S LITTLE RED BOOK: Winning in the Age of Trump: In this practical guide, Hewitt argues that Trump's presidency provides a unique opportunity for a bold new conservatism that absorbs most of the traditional Reagan agenda–free markets and strong defense–while adding an emphasis on improving infrastructure and health care. 265 pages. S&S. Paperback. Pub. at $15.99

TROLL NATION: How the Right Became Trump-Worshipping Monsters Set on Rattling Liberals, America, and Truth Itself By Amanda Marcotte. Argues that conservative pundits, politicians and activists have abandoned any hope of winning the argument through reasoned discourse, and instead have adopted a series of bad faith claims, conspiracy theories, and culture war hysterics. Decades of these antics created a conservative voting base ready to elect a mindless bully like Trump. 185 pages. Hot Books. Pub. at $21.99

MISSION ACCOMPLISHED? The Crisis of International Intervention By Simon Jenkins. Traces the rise of “liberal interventionism” from Kosovo and the “War on Terror” to present day conflicts in Libya, Syria and Ukraine. Exposes interventionist rhetoric and highlights past mistakes, giving an invaluable contribution to the active and essential debate on the West’s role in global conflicts. 195 pages. I.B. Tauris. Paperback. Pub. at $19.99

WE ARE CHANGE: The Global Truth & Liberty Movement By Brian Kenny. What started as a small youth group quickly became one of the most prominent grassroots activist/citizen journalist organizations. In this personal account from a founding member, readers get an honest look at the We Are Change movement: its tactics, history, trials and tribulations; and more. 403 pages. Treadstone. Paperback. Pub. at $13.95

ATTACK OF THE THEOCRATS! How the Religious Right Harms Us All–And What We Can Do About It By Sean Faircloth. At no such time has the U.S. had such a high percentage of theocratic members of Congress–those who expressly endorse religious bias in law. Here Faircloth argues that this has led to the crumbling of the country’s most cherished and founding wall of separation between church and state. 166 pages. Pitchstone. Paperback. Pub. at $14.95

THE BREXIT SURVIVAL ACTIVITY BOOK: Puzzle Your Way Out of Political Turmoil By Wayne Kerr. Packed with a host of games, jokes and activities, such as draw your own borders, dot to dot, A Great Brexit sing-along and a Theresa May mindfulness exercise, this interactive adventure will take your mind off the impending doom of not being allowed to compete in Eurovision. 64 pages. Orion. Paperback. Pub. at $15.99

BREXIT, NO EXIT: Why (in the End) Britain Won’t Leave Europe By Dennis MacShane. The UK’s Brexit vote on June 23rd 2016 provided perhaps the most dramatic proof that the era of political and economic globalization has ended. MacShane argues that Brexit will not mean full rupture with Europe and that British business will overcome the right wing forces of the Conservative back-benches and UKIP, which havealready weakened by the latest election. 298 pages. I.B. Tauris. Paperback. Pub. at $14.95

OUR SEPARATE WAYS By D.H. Allin & S.N. Simon. Anger and distrust have strained the U.S.-Israel alliance as the Obama administration and the Netanyahu government have clashed over Israeli settlements, convulsions in the Arab world, and negotiating with Iran. Going separate ways would be an immense tragedy, and the authors argue that the shared vision that created it must be restored. 284 pages. PublicAffairs. Pub. at $26.99

THE WILL TO LEAD: America’s Indispensable Role in the Global Fight for Freedom By Anders Fogh Rasmussen. Reviewing current geopolitical events, from the Arab Spring and the North Korean nuclear threat to Russia’s annexation of Crimea and the invasion of Ukraine, Rasmussen concludes that the world is on fire and that there is a link between this outbreak and America’s reluctance to use hard power. 247 pages. Broadside. Pub. at $27.99

UNLEASHING DEMONS: The Bestselling Inside Story of Brexit By Craig Oliver. As Director of Politics and Communications, Oliver was in the room at every key moment during the E.U. referendum, the biggest political event in the U.K. since WWII. This is raw history at its very best, packed with enthralling detail from behind the closed doors of the campaign that changed British history forever. Color photos. 420 pages. Hodder. Paperback. Pub. at $17.99

THE PEOPLE ARE GOING TO RISE LIKE THE WATERS UPON YOUR SHORE: A Story of American Rage By Jared Yates Sexton. A firsthand account of the events that shaped the 2016 presidential election and the cultural forces that divided both parties and powered Donald Trump into the White House. 322 pages. Counterpoint. Pub. at $26.00

INDEPENDENTS RISING: Outsider Movements, Third Parties, and the Struggle for a Post-Partisan America By Jacqueline S. Salt. Offers a revealing look at how voters that identify as neither Democrats nor Republicans have been upending the political establishment for 30 years–and how they’ll decide the future of American politics. 238 pages. St. Martin’s. Pub. at $25.00

THESHIPWRECKED MIND: On Political Reaction By Mark Lilla. We don’t understand the reactionary mind. As a result, argues this timely study, the ideas and passions that shape today’s political dramas are unintelligible. Integrating philosophical thought and historical events, Lilla sheds new light on the intellectual ailments that plague politics today. 145 pages. New York Review of Books. Paperback. Pub. at $15.95

SIX ENCOUNTERS WITH LINCOLN By Elizabeth Brown Pryor. Pryor examines six mostly unknown encounters between Abraham Lincoln and his constituents. Taken together, they reveal Lincoln’s character and opinions in unexpected ways, illustrating his difficulties in managing a presidency and facing the demons that arose from the very nature of democracy itself. Illus. 486 pages. Penguin. Paperback. Pub. at $18.00

WHEN THE CENTER HELD: Gerald Ford and the Rescue of the American Presidency By Donald Rumsfeld. A revealing political memoir about one of the country’s most divisive times, revealing Ford as an honest, compassionate, intelligent, morally sound leader whom the country desperately needed to guide it through tumultuous times. America’s “long national nightmare” was indeed over, thanks in no small measure to the man at the center. 16 pages of photos. 331 pages. Free Press. Pub. at $28.00

The New Democrats and the Return to Power By Al From with A. McKean. In a unique partnership forged during the days of 1980s Republican reign, Al From and Bill Clinton reshaped, redefined, and revitalized the Democratic party. Here, From explores the founding philosophy of the New Democrats, shedding light on the rise of a new generation of progressive politicians. 266 pages. Palgrave. Pub. at $23.00
American Political History

PRESIDENTIAL GOVERNMENT By Benjamin Ginsberg. An essential resource for study of the United States presidency that offers comprehensive analysis of the historical, constitutional, and legal dimensions of presidential power. Brimming with fresh insight and new research, Ginsberg expertly guides students through the myriad dimensions of an iconic office. Illus. 492 pages. Yale. Item #6933041 $4.95

CLINTON, INC.: The Audacious Rebuilding of a Political Machine By Daniel Halper. A story of strategic calculation, backroom deals, reckless gambles, and an unquenchable thirst for wealth and power. Halper describes in intimate detail how the Bill and Hillary partnership works, demonstrating how they are, in effect, dual CEOs of a single enterprise focused on the ultimate goal of reclaiming political power. 319 pages. Item #5809509 $5.95

THE RUNNER-UP PRESIDENCY By Mark Weston. We’ve had a succession of runner-up presidencies for two centuries, and Weston shows how all too often, the electoral system shakes our faith in American democracy. With incisive political and numerical analysis, he explains how the quirks of our electoral system played out in America’s sixth closest elections. 216 pages. Lyons. Item #2830574 $5.95

DEMOCRACY IN AMERICA By Alexis de Tocqueville. Repubulication of the work first published in 1835. In this study Tocqueville examines why republican representative democracy prevailed in the United States, tracing its success from the state of equality established by early Puritan settlers through the American Revolution and adoption of the Constitution. 469 pages. Dover. Item #5897066 $4.95

THE AMERICAN PRESIDENCY FOR BEGINNERS By Justin Slaughter Dorthy. Charting the evolution of the presidency—from weak curator of Congress to titan of policy both domestic and foreign—this concise history highlights the actions and consequences of our nation’s leaders. From George Washington to Barack Obama. Illus. 292 pages. For Beginners. Item #5927510 $17.95

CONSERVATISM: An Invitation to the Great Tradition By Roger Scruton. This clear and incisive guide is essential reading for anyone wishing to understand Western politics and policies, and now and over the last three centuries. 164 pages. St. Martin’s. Item #52499 $24.99

THE AMERICAN FIRST!: Its History, Culture, and Politics By Bill Kaufman. Kaufman explores the rich heritage, the turbulent present, and the possible future of the political and cultural tendency known as “American First,” from its early eclipse in the war hysteria of the Great Depression to its resurgence today and the impact on the run-up to the 1992 election. 758 pages. HMH. Item #587915 $11.95

A GOVERNMENT BY THE PEOPLE: Direct Democracy in America, 1890–1940 By Thomas Goebel. The call for direct democracy was deeply rooted in anti-monopoly sentiment between 1898 and 1918, but by the 1930s it became clear that it was favoring large organizations with the financial resources to fund expensive campaigns. Goebel’s analysis of direct democracy’s history, evolution, and ultimate unsuitability as a grassroots tool is particularly timely. 302 pages. UNC. Item #5838220 $4.95

THE REVOLT AGAINST THE MASSES: How Liberalism Has Undermined the Middle Class By Fred Siegel. This short volume shows what we think of as liberalism, the top and bottom coalition we associate with the Obama era, as a rallying point with Progressivism or the New Deal but rather in the wake of WWI, in disillusionment with American society. Siegel explores the inner liberal optimism over the past 90 years. 239 pages. Item #6882749 $9.95

THE PRESIDENT IS A SICK MAN By Matthew Algeo. Details an extraordinary but almost unknown chapter in American history—President Grover Cleveland’s secret cancer surgery and the brazen political cover-up by a politician whose most memorable quote was “Tell the truth.” Illus. 255 pages. Chicago Review. Item #6734174 $11.95

2016-2017 DIRECTORY OF AMERICAN POLITICS Ed. by Arlander C. Brown III. A comprehensive compendium of our country’s political institutions, which can help anyone seeking a guide to the forces shaping contemporary American politics. Whether you are looking to donate to a 501(c)(4) or contact contemporary American politics, this concise history—President Grover Cleveland’s secret cancer surgery and the brazen political cover-up by a politician whose most memorable quote was “Tell the truth.” Illus. 255 pages. Chicago Review. Item #6734174 $11.95

CRADLES OF POWER: The Mothers and Fathers of the American Presidents By Harold I. Lasswell. Many of us, for better or worse, are shaped by our early life. Heads of state are no exception. This book traces the childhood experiences of the presidents, from the Jeffersons to the Eisenhowers to the Obamas. Item #6735053 $6.95

SUMMER IN THE CITY: John Lindsay, New York, and the American Dream Ed. by Joseph P. Viterito. This collection of essays offers insights into the early influences that helped shape our presidents, from the Jeffersons to the Eisenhower to the Obamas. 16 pages of photos. 379 pages. Skyhorse. Item #6578992 $6.95

THE LAST SHERIFF IN TEXAS: A True Tale of Violence and the Vote By James P. McCollom. A riveting narrative about the postwar American landscape, the debate over excessive force in law enforcement, Anglo-Mexican relations, gun control, the influence of the media, and mistrust of politicians and the political process—in 1952—issues that we continue to face today. 260 pages. Counterpoint. Item #6739539 $7.95

THE SPOILS OF WAR: Greed, Power, and the Conflicts That Made Our Greatest Presidents By Mark Blum. Demonstrates in compelling fashion that wars, even bloody and noble ones, are not primarily motivated by democracy or freedom or the sanctity of human life. When our presidents risk the lives of brave young soldiers, the authors argue that they do it for the sake of their own self-interest. 292 pages. PublicAffairs. Item #6578992 $9.95

PUTIN’S ASYMMETRIC ASSAULT ON DEMOCRACY IN RUSSIA AND EUROPE: Implications for U.S. National Security

The senators and staffs of the U.S. Senate Committee on Foreign Relations are giving the nation fair warning of a 9/11 level assault on the United States, this time by Russia’s spy agencies. In this provocative examination we learn not only the history of Russia’s devastating tactics, but how to recognize and counter them. 200 pages. Skyhorse. Paperback. Pub. at $10.99

JUMPING AT SHADOWS: The Triumph of Fear and the End of the American Dream

Sasha Abramsky. Delivers a searing account of America’s most dangerous epidemic: irational fear. Taking readers on a dramatic journey through a divided nation, Abramsky paints a shocking portrait of a political and cultural landscape that is increasingly defined by our worst fears and anxieties, from gun control to Ebola to nuclear war. 324 pages. Nation Books. Pub. at $28.00

LISTEN, YANK! Why Cuba Matters

Tom Hayden. Based on unprecedented access to both Cuban and American officials, this volume offers fresh insight into one of history’s most enigmatic relationships between nation-states. Hayden puts the present moment into historical context and shows how we’re finally finding common ground to the advantage of Cubans and Americans alike. 298 pages. Seven Stories. Pub. at $24.95

RESTLESS VALLEY: Revolution, Murder, and Intrigue in the Heart of Central Asia

ENDING THE WAR ON DRUGS

Richard Branson et al. Global opinion leaders on the front-line of the drug debate describe their experiences and perspectives on what needs to be done. They highlight the pitfalls behind drug policy to date and bring new policies and approaches. 215 pages. Virgin. Paperback. Pub. at $18.95

WHAT UNITES US: Reflections on Patriotism

Dan Rather & E. Kirschen. As a living witness to historical change, Rather offers up an intimate view of history, tracing where we have been in order to help us chart a way forward and heal our bitter divisions. In this collection of original essays, Rather reminds us of the principles upon which the United States was founded. 274 pages. Algonquin. Paperback. Pub. at $22.95

IRREGULAR WAR: The New Threat from the Margins

Paul Rogers. Details the broad implications of movements such as ISIS for the world facing the twin problems of an unstable wealth-poverty divide and environmental constraints. Unless these problems can be recognized and addressed, we face a period of deep instability, including a much-increased risk of revolts from the margins. 248 pages. I.B. Tauris. Paperback. Pub. at $15.95

THE AMERICA SYNDROME: Apocalypse, War, and Our Call to Greatness

Betsy Hartmann. Immigrants shed light on a pervasive but (until now) invisible theme shaping the American mindset: apocalyptic thinking. Revealing how this frame of mind is impacting the American mentality, Hartmann argues for a reclaiming of our human agency, suggesting that by changing the way we think, we just might change the world. 282 pages.

DEBATING THE END OF HISTORY

David W. Noble. Examines the core of the current ideological and social debates, even as it demonstrates the required movement of the humanities toward the ecological vision of a single, interconnected world. Noble charts the uses and abuses of knowledge that lie at the heart of so many of our political problems today. 204 pages. UMP. Paperback. Pub. at $25.00

UBERPOWER: The Imperial Temptation of America

Jill Jonnes. With keen diplomatic analysis Joffe examines the gargantuan burdens brought on by singular power and traces the roots of anti-Americanism in Europe and around the world. 272 pages. Norton. Paperback. Pub. at $13.95

A PASSION FOR LEADERSHIP: Lessons on Change and Reform from Fifty Years of Public Service

Robert M. Gates.
