The Greatest Hits. Freddy Tijano lends his Tex-Mex brand of country and rock to 20 tracks including Covered byJD McPherson, Ringo Starr, and The Beach Boys. The CD features a 1972 recording of “Down by the River” plus five other tracks from the Nassau Coliseum in Uniondale, New York, performed on November 24, 1974. Nine tracks are performed in stereo, and 13 tracks are performed in mono. The sound quality of the CD is excellent, and the recording is very clean and crisp. The CD includes some of the band’s best-known songs, such as “Johnny B. Goode” and “Roll Over Beethoven.” The CD also includes some tracks that have never been released on a CD before, such as “Hound Dog” and “Peggy Sue.” The CD is available in stereo and mono versions. The stereo version is recommended for those who want to hear the best sound quality, while the mono version is recommended for those who want a more authentic sound. The CD is available at most music stores and online retailers.
