1922122 THE BATTLE OF THE CATALAUNIAN FIELDS, AD 451. By Evan Michael Schulteis. Traditionally considered one of the pivotal battles in the history of warfare, this work presents compelling evidence that the story of the battle from conquest by the Huns, Schulteis reveals here the battle to be significant, but less immediately decisive than claimed. Color photos. 262 pages. Pen & Sword. Pub. at $34.95. $7.95

2994704 LOST IN TIBET, SECOND EDITION: The Untold Story of Five American Airmen, a Doomed Plane, and the Will to Survive. By R. Stacks & M. Murcutt. Recounts the extraordinary adventure of five American fliers who crashed in the heart of Tibet. They were among the first Americans to enter the Forbidden City of Lhasa, and among the last to see it before the Chinese invasion. Photos. 220 pages. Lyons. Paperbound. Pub. at $16.95. $4.95

491704 THE MAMMOTH BOOK OF MODERN BATTLES. Ed. by Jon E. Lewis. The 42 accounts of battle in this unmissable collection give important insights into the conflicts that shaped the modern world. Both detailed and hugely readable, they are the work of top historians and renowned writers and correspondents such as John Keegan, Alan Clark, John Sweeney, Charles Moy, John Finlith, and John Laffin. 589 pages. Robinson. Paperbound. $6.95

4984391 THE SEVEN MILITARY CLASSICS OF ANCIENT CHINA. By Miyamoto Musashi. Translated by a Samurai who ever lived, and his writings including his magisterial Book of Five Rings are widely read by millions of people today in Japan and around the world. Like Sun Tzu’s The Art of War, Musashi offers unique insights not just for warriors, but for anyone wishing to apply the Zen principles to their endeavors. 16 pages of color illus. 224 pages. Tuttle. 3899896 THE SEVEN MILITARY CLASSICS OF ANCIENT CHINA. The seven texts in this collection display an understanding of strategy and warfare still relevant in the 21st century. After they were originally written, including Sun Tzu’s The Art of War, they present a uniquely modern perspective on warfare that emphasizes speed, mobility, and sound intelligence. The finality of this outcome is enshrined in obscure parts of China. Far from front lines and in-depth research into one of America’s most storied disasters, the defeat of Custer’s 7th Cavalry at the Little Bighorn. By Roger Crowley. Delivers a lively narrative of the lead-up to the siege and a vivid, blow by blow account of the climactic battle. Both Muslims and Christians were acutely aware of the finality of this outcome, which crystallized a bitter legacy for both Islam and Christendom that resonated beyond the drama of the fighting or the strategic importance of this one city. Illus. 296 pages. Little, Brown. Paperbound. Pub. at $19.95. $9.95

370534X THE WAR OF 1812 IN THE CHESAPEAKE. By Ralph E. Eshelman et al. Supported by such primary documents as diaries, journals, and newspaper articles, the material compiled in this encyclopedia provides a comprehensive look through a body of chronicles thus brought together on the subject. Local librarians, historians, tour guides, history buffs, school teachers, and genealogists will find this guide to be informative and entertaining. Well illus. 410 pages. 4982882 WITH WELLINGTON’S HUSSARS IN THE PENINSULA AND WATERLOO. Ed. by G. C. C. Young & R. J. Young. George Woodberry’s lively and entertaining journal—his account of his time in Wellington’s army—is matched by the unusual story of his history. Originally published in 1858, the French edition has now been translated back into English by a noted Napoleonic historian. Collected and 382 pages. Frontline. Pub. at $39.95. $7.95

4883314 CODE OF THE SAMURAI: A Modern Translation of the Bushido Shoshinshu of Taira Shigesuke. By Thomas Cleary. A 350 year old text and one of the earliest and most important of the Bushido, the ancient Samurai “Way of the Warrior.” This influential edition was intended as a training manual for young Samurai, outlining their personal and professional standards. 32 pages of color illus. 128 pages. Tuttle. Paperbound. Pub. at $11.99. $3.95

4869729 THE ACCURSED TOWER: The Fall of Acre and the End of the Crusades. By Roger Crowley. Delivers a lively narrative of the lead-up to the siege and a vivid, blow by blow account of the climactic battle. Both Muslims and Christians were acutely aware of the finality of this outcome, which crystallized a bitter legacy for both Islam and Christendom that resonated beyond the drama of the fighting or the strategic importance of this one city. Illus. 296 pages. Little, Brown. Paperbound. Pub. at $17.99. $9.95

★ 3799898 THE FIGHTS ON THE LITTLE HORN: Unveiling the Mysteries of Custer’s Last Stand. By Gordon Clinton Harper et al. This comprehensive study synthesizes a lifetime of in-depth research into one of America’s most storied disasters: the defeat of Custer’s Cavalry at the hands of the Sioux and Cheyenne Indians, as well as the complete annihilation of that part of the cavalry led by Custer himself. 922 pages. 5 photos. 386 pages. Paperbound. Pub. at $19.95. $14.95

4979958 A QUEST OF BLUDE & TREASURE: The 19th Anglo-Russian Invasion of the Netherlands. By Philip Ball. This work examines the key factors in determining the planning, realization and failure of the campaign. Uses firsthand accounts to bring the land and sea battles of the campaign to life in vivid detail, and tells the story of the expedition from every angle using British, French, Dutch and Russian sources. Photos. 206 pages. Pen & Sword. Pub. at $34.95. $9.95
