After initial distrust, both the IOC and the Nazis found common ground in the collaboration of interests between Hitler and ambitious Olympic planners. Featuring never before seen footage and new research, this film reveals how the 1936 Games were turned into the biggest Olympic show the world had ever seen. It was the year that doomed Nazi Germany to defeat. It was the year that led to the retreat in the west 1944-45. It was the year that led to the end of WWII, compiled from both official documentation and newly available archival materials. It is a riveting look back across time to some of the most intriguing sites of the war years. It is a powerful argument that will inspire a major rethinking of how World War II was fought. It is a riveting history of one of the Nazi’s cruelest and most obscene experiments—theenslavement of so called “inferior races”; the spread of Nazi ideology; and his war winning technologies. It is a vivid history of the Kummersdorf Proving Ground, inextricably linked with research, development and testing of a wide variety of German weapons, vehicles and equipment. It is a riveting look back across time to some of the most intriguing sites of the war to overthrow the regime. Drawing on newly available archival materials, Mueller investigates the double life of this enigmatic figure. It is 368 pages, Skyhorse. It is Pub. at $24.99

#399672X PHILIP AND ALEXANDER: Kings and Conquerors. By Adrian Goldsworthy. Alexander the Great’s conquests staggered the world; they overreached his control and left many of his territories and kingdoms of his time and built a new one in their place. The son of Philip II, the author shows Alexander’s father integral to his extraordinary rule and the making of the Empire. This is a definitive story of a father and son who together reshaped the ancient world. 16 pages of color photos. 572 pages. Basic. Pub. at $35.00 $26.95

#373527 THE GREATEST OF ALL LEATHERNECKS: John Archer Lejeune and the Making of the Modern Marine Corps. By Joseph Arthur Simon. The first comprehensive biography of Lejeune (1867-1942), a Louisiana native and the most innovative and influential leader of the United States Marine Corps in the twentieth century. As Sim masterfully illustrates, the mission and value of the corps today spring largely from the efforts and vision of John Lejeune. 22 pages of photos. 349 pages. LaSalle. Pub. at $16.95 $15.65

#670868 CHURCHILL'S FLAWED DECISIONS: Errors in Office of the Greatest Briton. By Stephen Wynn. There is another side to Churchill that is not often spoken of, and one that led to him making some questionable decisions. Some of these, it could be argued, were for national security reasons, but others were not, proving that even the very best are not always as perfect as they first appear. Photos. 140 pages. Pen & Sword. Pub. at $16.95 $15.65

#455775 COLONEL HAMILTON AND COLONEL BURR: The Revolutionary Lives of Alexander Hamilton and Aaron Burr. By Arthur S. Leffowitz. The final meeting of Alexander Hamilton and Aaron Burr took place in 1804. It ended with Burr mortally wounding Hamilton in a duel. Hamilton and Burr first met in 1776, during the American Revolution. Here is a fresh approach to the American Revolution from the standpoint of two of its most interesting participants. Illus. 253 pages. Stockpile. Pub. at $27.95 $21.95

4736540 21ST CENTURY SIMS: Innovation, Education, and Leadership for the Modern Era. By Benjamin F. Armstrong. A collection of Admiral Sims' written work, and an investigation of his relevance in addressing the questions facing today's military personnel and policymakers. Armstrong's introductions and analysis of these essays links them directly to the issues of innovation, educational leadership, and education that are as important at the start of this century as they were at the start of the last. 162 pages. Naval Institute. Paperback. Pub. at $21.95 $6.95

#385378 GOD'S VIKING: Harald Hardrada. By Nic Fields. A man of war. His reign in Norway was to be a time of monumental change, ultimately leading to its defeat against England. A kingdom (like England) he believed was his to rule.
