This is a historical account of the battle of Korsun-Cherkassy in 1943. It is based on first-hand interviews and written accounts including diaries, letters, and journals. The battle was a significant turning point in the Eastern Front during World War II. The account details the extreme heroism and failures of leadership and cover-ups that prompted the operations on the Eastern Front and the battle of Nikolaus von Vormann. After Action Reports complete the narrative of the battles on the Greek island of Leros in September.

The book provides a strategic overview of the campaign as described from the original form. Despite its failures, the battle resulted in a turning point against the extreme heroism of the mass German attack on Soviet Russia and the fierce fighting which took place from 1941 to 1942. Essential reading for anyone with an interest in the Eastern Front and the operational issues which shaped the course of the war on the Eastern Front. Photos & maps. 276 pages. Paperbound. Military Leaders

6927238 KILLING PATTON: The Strange Death of World War II’s Most Audacious General. By Bill O'Reilly & M. Dugard. Having captivated countless readers with Killing Lincoln, Killing Kennedy, and Killing Jesus, O'Reilly now recounts General George S. Patton's controversial contributions to the Allied victory in Europe before his mysterious death in December 1945—just days before he was to return to the United States. Maps & photos. 352 pages. Holt. Pub. at $30.00. $9.95

5773717 LEE: A Biography. By Clifford Dowdey. Life in the context of the Confederate Civil War and placing him in the context of the Republic’s total history, Dowdey illuminates the “eternal relevance” of this tragic figure. What emerges is a significant re-interpretation of the general: a peacemaker who rejected the idea of war as resolution. Photos. 781 pages. Skyhorse. $14.99

2810581 FIERCE PATRIOT: The Tangled Lives of William Tecumseh Sherman. By Robert L. O’Connell. Sherman was a man of many faces. Some were exalted in the public eye, others known only to his intimates. O’Connell captures the man in full, from his early exploits in Florida, through his brilliant but tempestuous generalship during the Civil War, to his role as a key player in the building of the railroad. Photos. 404 pages. Random. Pub. at $18.00. $4.95

6839330 GEORGE WASHINGTON’S MILITARY GENIUS. By Dave R. Palmer. A stirring and provocative military history of the Revolutionary War and George Washington’s leading place in it, this work by a former Superintendent of West Point is sure to enlighten and entertain any reader with an interest in America’s path to independence. 254 pages. Regnery. Paperbound. Pub. at $27.95. $4.95

693515X LINCOLN’S LIEUTENANTS: The High Command of the Army of the Potomac. By Stephen W. Sears. A new layered group biography of the commanders who led the Army of the Potomac through victories and final triumph at Appomattox. Sears brings these colorful, dynamic officers through the ranks and led from the front, to life. Photos. 884 pages. HMH. Pub. at $38.00. $6.95

2923459 CUSTER’S TRIALS: A Life on the Frontier of a New America. By T.J. Stiles. Painting a portrait of Custer both general and man, Stiles provides proof of how much of Custer’s legacy has been ignored. He reveals a capable yet insecure man, intelligent yet bigoted, passionate yet self-destructive, a romantic individualist at odds with the institution of the military and a wartime emancipator who rejected racial equality. 16 pages of illus. 582 pages. Vintage. Paperbound. Pub. at $19.95. $5.95

2892462 DOUGLAS MACARTHUR: A Biography of America’s Greatest American Hero. By Arthur Herman. A vivid portrait of a man whose grandiose vision of his own destiny won him enemies as well as acolytes. One of the first military historians of this era, Herman has a strong sense of divine mission, and although he felt he could not fail, when he did, it was on an epic scale. 16 pages of photos. 937 pages. Random. Pub. at $40.00. $7.95

2924425 DOUGLAS MACARTHUR: American Warrior. By Arthur Herman. Herman delivers a powerhouse biography that peels back the layers of myth, spanning the full arc of MacArthur’s journey, from his elevation to major general at West Point, through his tenure as superintendent of West Point, field marshal of the Philippines, supreme ruler of postwar Japan, and beyond. 16 pages of photos. 937 pages. Random. Paperbound. Pub. at $22.00. $9.95

2922797 NAPOLEON ON ST HELENA. By Michael Brookes. One of the best accounts of the fallen Emperor’s life and a half year imprisonment on St. Helena, which ended in 1821 with his death from a stomach ulcer. Brookes presents the full story of Napoleon’s mysterious island residence, and domestic arrangements, his relationship with the local and military residents, and the long-standing feud between Plantation House and Longwood. 32 Illus., some color. 256 pages. Fonthill. Paperbound. Pub. at $25.95. $6.95

6835651 THE GENERALS: American Military Command from World War II to Today. By Thomas E. Ricks. Here, we meet great leaders and suspect ones, generals who rose to the occasion and those who failed to do so. It is ultimately an examination of how the technology, terrain, and strategy of war have changed over the years, and how American leaders have responded. 419 pages. Random. Paperbound. Pub. at $24.95. $6.95

6924050 THE WILL TO WIN: The Life of General James A. Van Fleet. By Paul F. Brain. Gen. James Van Fleet led American and allied forces to battlefield victory during a distinguished career as a Confederate General, the Cold War and earned him four stars. Van Fleet’s success was in inspiring his men with the will to win. He was one of our truly great military leaders. 16 pages of photos. 419 pages. Random. Paperbound. Pub. at $24.95. $6.95
