3899497 WE NEED TO TALK: How to Have Conversations That Matter. By Celeste Headlee. Today most of us communicate from behind electronic screens, and studies show that Americans feel less connected and more divided than ever before. What we need is to start talking to one another. The author outlines strategies to make you a better conversationalist and offers steps to improve communication skills. 244 pages. Harper Wave. Paperbound. Pub. at $16.99. $5.95
3835243 DRUNKARD'S PROGRESS: Narratives of Addiction, Despair, and Recovery. Ed. by John W. Crowley. Presents a collection of revealing excerpts from temperance narratives of the nineteenth century, though widely circulated in their time, these influential papers have largely been forgotten. In this collection, Achor shows that success and happiness are not competitive sports. Rather, they depend almost entirely on how well we connect with, relate to, and learn from one another. 237 pages. Currency Press. Pub. at $28.00.
