It is the amazing detective-like world of ichnology, where traces and trace fossils enable us to explore the existence of these remarkable creatures. 24 pages of color photos. 460 pages. Pegasus. Pub. at $29.95. $7.95

- 6762433 THE ANCESTOR’S TALE, REVISED: A Pilgrimage to the Dawn of Evolution. By R. Dawkins & Y. Wong. In the decade since this elegantly written took appeared, a wealth of new discoveries has significantly broadened and refined our understanding of the primordial germ line journeys and other aspects of the human family tree. Full color illus. 294 pages. InUP. Pub. at $39.95. $25.95

- 6748949 UNBOUND: How Eight Technologies Made Us Human and Brought Us to the Brink. By Richard L. Ziman. Synthesizes the findings of primatology, paleontology, history, and anthropology. Currier reinterprets the modern narrative of human evolution and explains both how we got here and how human society must be transformed again to achieve a sustainable future. 16 pages of illus. 376 pages. Arcade. Paperbound, Pub. at $18.99. $5.95

- 595197X DARWIN’S ON THE ORIGIN OF SPECIES: A Modern Rendition. By Daniel Duzdevich. Neither an abridgment nor a summary, this version of Charles Darwin’s most popular work may be best described as a "translation" for contemporary English readers. By removing the linguistic barriers, this edition aims to bring 21st century readers into closer contact with Darwin’s revolutionary ideas. 273 pages. InUP. Pub. at $39.95. $17.95

- 5950153 EVOLUTION IN MINUTES: The Theory and Story of Life Evolution, Simple and Illustrated. By Darren Naish. Answers the fundamental question on the most controversial topic of all, explaining where we came from, how we became human, and what might lie beyond. Naish reconciles the concepts, rival theories, history, and politics of evolution, as well as explaining the development of life across time. Illus. 416 pages. Quercus. Paperbound. Pub. at $11.99. $6.95

- 6975078 THE POLITICALLY INCORRECT GUIDE TO DARWINISM AND INTELLIGENT DESIGN. By Jonathan Wells. Unmasks the truth about Darwinism: why it is wrong and what the real evidence is. Includes a revealing list of “Books you’re Not Supposed to Read” and puts at your fingertips the powerful tools you need to challenge the most close minded Darwinist. 273 pages. Regnery. Paperback, Pub. at $19.95. $4.95

- 5904179 FEATHERED DRAGONS: Studies on the Transition from Dinosaurs to Birds. Ed. by Philip J. Currie et al. Scientists from around the world gathered to examine Bambiraptor, a remarkably new specimen from Mongolia that they used to discuss the origin of birds, the origin of feathers, and the origin of flight. From that gathering have emerged the studies on dinosaurs-bird evolution published here. Well illus., some color. 389 pages. InUP. Pub. at $59.00. $14.95

- 5992298 THE DINOFOSSILS GUIDE. By Anthony J. Martin. Burrows have provided animals a safe haven, and protected them from all types of natural disasters, be they volcanic eruptions, meteor, or global warmings and coolings. Martin reveals this fascinating hidden world, teeming with an astounding array of fauna. Includes 200 detailed color photos. 405 pages. Pegasus. Pub. at $28.95. $7.95

Palaeontology & Evolution

6898459 SAPIENS: A Brief History of Humankind. By Yuval Noah Harari. Drawing on insights from biology, anthropology, paleontology, and economics, Harari explains how the core events of history have shaped our human societies, the animals and plants around us, and even our personalities. He challenges everything we thought we knew about human thought, our actions, our value and our future. Illus. some color. 443 pages. Harper/Perennial. Paperbound. Pub. at $22.99

6902634 MY EUROPEAN FAMILY: The First 54,000 Years. By Karin Bojs. Tells the story of Europe and its people through its genetic legacy, from the first walkers to the prehistoric mammals, as seen through the latest archaeological findings. By going deep in search of her own genealogy, Bojs was able to trace the path of her ancestors back through the Viking and Bronze Ages to the Neolithic and beyond, which is in many ways the true story of Europe. Photos. 400 pages. Bloomsbury. Paperbound Import. Pub. at $17.00

3959274 WHEN LIFE NEARLY DIED: The Greatest Mass Extinction of All Time. By Michael J. Benton. Chronicles not the meteor impact of 65 million years ago that wiped out half of all species, but a much greater catastrophe that took place near the end of the Permian period 251 million years ago, when at least 90 percent of life was destroyed. Illus. 352 pages. Theories & Hudson. Paperbound. Pub. at $24.95

6922270 WOOLLY: The True Story of the Quest to Revive History’s Most Iconic Extinct Creature. By Ben Mezrich. A scintillating adventure involving a host of extraordinary people, including the geniuses behind rapid fossil hunters who are battling polar bears and extreme conditions in the name of scientific advancement; and a father and son team of Russian scientists working to turn a track of the Siberian tundra into a real-life Jurassic Park. 293 pages. Atira. Paperbound. Pub. at $13.99

6759556 LIFE THROUGH THE AGES: A Commemorative Edition. By Charles R. Knight. First published in 1946, this work was for many a bedside look at the strange animals of the prehistoric past. Knight’s work was highly regarded both for its artistic skill and for its scientific accuracy, closely based on the then-known knowledge of the time. Fully illus. 67 pages. InUP. Paperbound. Pub. at $18.00

6972020 PURPOSE & DESIRE: What Makes Something “Alive” and Why Modern Darwinism Has Failed to Explain It. By J. Scott Turner. Arguing that many biologists’ beliefs about living things have been shaped by a scientific dead end, Dr. Turner argues that an openness to “purpose and desire” is the key to moving the field forward. In his convincing appeal, he makes the case for moving beyond the strictures of mechanism and materialism to arrive at an evolution that is purposeful and deliberate. Photos. 332 pages. HarperOne. Pub. at $27.99

6972829 THE ENDS OF THE WORLD. By Peter Brannen. Part road trip, part history, and part cautionary tale, this discussion of the five mass extinctions our world has experienced takes the reader on a tour of the ways that our planet has clawed itself back from the grave, and in the process offers us a glimpse of what’s to come. Color illus. 322 pages. Ecclo. Pub. at $27.99

6922783 THE ENDS OF THE WORLD. By Peter Brannen. Setting out on a trip to visit some of the world’s leading experts on mass extinctions, Peter Brannen follows them on the trail of telling new discoveries about mass extinctions, and dives into deep time, exploring each of the Earth’s five dead ends, and in the process offers us a glimpse of what’s to come. Color photos. 322 pages. Ecclo. Paperbound. Pub. at $16.00

582798X GIANTS OF THE LOST WORLD: Dinosaurs and Other Extinct Monsters of South America. By Donald R. Prothero. Presents the first full-length history of the dinosaurs and other intriguing animals that once roamed South America. From their evolution to their biology to their eventual discovery by naturalists and paleozoologists, Prothero weaves a spellbinding account of a lost world far stranger than fiction. Illus., some color. 174 pages. Smithsonian. Pub. at $27.95

4597222 THE INVASERS: How Humans and Their Dogs Drove Neanderthals to Extinction. By Pat Shipman. Outlined here are Shipman’s research and hypothesis that the alliance between humans and dogs, which predated Neanderthals, may be responsible for a possible unprecedented degree of success in hunting large Ice Age mammals, a decisive advantage for humans over Neanderthals at a time when climate change made both groups vulnerable. Illus. 261 pages. Overlook. Pub. at $29.95

6956156 IMPROBABLE DESTINIES: Fate, Chance, and the Future of Evolution. By Jonathan B. Losos. A key question for evolutionary biology is whether evolution is inevitable or haphazard. This is one of the greatest debates in science. Explore why this question is so important to our understanding of ourselves and the natural world—it will change the way you think and talk about evolution. 368 pages. Riverhead. Pub. at $17.00

6923151 EVOLUTIONS: Fifteen Myths That Explain Our World. By Oren Harman. Brings to life the scientific thinking on the birth of the universe and the solar system, the journey from a single cell all the way to our human minds. Reveawakening our sense of wonder and terror at the world around us and within and A brilliant, lyrical exploration of how modern science explains our world. 304 pages. FSG. Pub. at $26.00

6972578 WRITTEN IN STONE: The Hidden Secrets of Fossils and the Story of Life on Earth. By Brian Switek. The first account of the hunt for evolution’s “missing links,” Switek shows how these discoveries have revolutionized paleontology, and explores where these findings might mean for our place on earth. Illus. 320 pages. Icon. Paperbound import. PRICE CUT to $4.95

363622X THE PHYSICS OF LIFE. By Adrian Bejan. Engaging the meaning of evolution in its broadest sense, Bejan offers a compelling new perspective on how our world develops. In an all-encompassing new tale, he suggests that everything from the way raindrops fall to the evolution of the forward-moving spectrum, from rolling stones and rivers to technology, government, life, and beyond, is guided by a single underlying physical law. 261 pages. St. Martin’s. Pub. at $27.99

6874592 THE HUMAN INSTINCT: How We Evolved to Have Reason, Consciousness, and Free Will. By Kenneth R. Miller. 294 pages. S&S. Pub. at $26.00

5799624 HUMANBOUND. By Alexander H. Harcourt. 16 pages of photos. 324 pages. Seagull. Pub. at $27.95

6884999 ARMCHAIR CHEMISTRY: Everything You Need to Know, from Atoms to Polymers

$7.95

6801889 REALITY IS NOT WHAT IT SEEMS: The Journey to Quantum Gravity

By Carlo Rovelli. In elegant and accessible prose, a theoretical physicist gives an up-close look at the mind-bending nature of our universe. As he offers explanations of the theories of physics that are changing the way we see the world. Illus. 280 pages. Riverhead. Paperback. Pub. at $16.00

9946100 SEVEN BRIEF LESSONS ON PHYSICS.

By Carlo Rovelli. Offers surprising and surprisingly easy-to-grasp—explanations of general relativity, quantum mechanics, elementary particles, gravity, black holes, the complex architecture of the universe, and how the rules of chance play a part in the weird and wonderful world. Illus. 86 pages. Riverhead. Pub. at $18.00

6869522 THREE ROADS TO QUANTUM GRAVITY

By Lee Smolin. Provides a concise and accessible overview of current attempts to reconcile two theories—Einstein’s Theory of Relativity and Quantum Theory—in a final “theory of everything.” This is the closest anyone has ever come to devising a complete and consistent picture of the universe and the universe’s development. Includes 270 pages. Basic. Paperback. Pub. at $16.99

$12.95

6752624 WHY THE UNIVERSE EXISTS: New Scientist Instant Expert.

Ed. by Stephen Battersby. Answers the ultimate existential question: why is there something rather than nothing? Discusses the special time, and the universe’s beginning. From Laziness to Love. 354 pages. Riverhead. Pub. at $18.00

$13.95

6896731 WE HAVE NO IDEA: A Guide to the Unknown Universe.

By J. Cham & D. Whiteson. This fully illustrated introduction to the biggest mysteries in physics also demystifies many complicated topics, from the workings of the world around us to the mysteries of the universe. 228 pages. Riverhead. Paperbound. Pub. at $18.95

5525870 THE QUANTUM GUIDE TO LIFE: How the Laws of Physics Explain Our Lives from Laziness to Love.

By Kunal K. Das. Learn how quantum physics affects your daily life and discover practical ways to put that knowledge to good use! Join a theoretical physicist on this surprising and enlightening adventure as he applies the laws of physics to our daily lives and gives us the tools to better understand ourselves. Illus. 310 pages. Skyhorse. Pub. at $22.95

6882605 PHYSICS: An Illustrated History of the Foundations of Science.

By Tom Jackson. The development of physics is a story of many chapters, each adding to our understanding of how the Universe functions. Collected here are 100 remarkable breakthroughs that either lay to rest or revitalize that scientific saga, populated with groundbreaking figures from Archimedes to Albert Einstein. Includes a 12-page removable timeline. Well illus., most color. 144 pages. Shelter Harbor. 9x11. Pub. at $24.95

6882602 THE ELEMENTS: An Illustrated History of the Periodic Table.

By Tom Jackson. Each of 100 fascinating stories relates a confounding puzzle that became a landmark discovery in chemistry. From Thales of Miletus, an ancient Greek philosopher who helped uncover the key to fire, to the 17th-century German alchemist who found phosphorus, these are the breakthroughs that shaped science history. Chemistry & Physics

692127 HOW TO TEACH QUANTUM PHYSICS TO YOUR DOG. By Chad Orzel. In this entertaining volume, Orzel explains the key theories of quantum physics, taking his dog Emmy's anarchic behavior as a starting point. Orzel explains the radical jump from the world we know to Heisenberg's world: the physics of the world underlying our uncertainty principals, he unlocks the secrets of the universe. Illus. 241 pages. Scribner. Paperback. Pub. at $16.00

6845274 WHAT IS REAL? The Unfinished Quest for the Meaning of Quantum Physics. By Adam Becker. The predominant way of thinking about the meaning of quantum physics has been Danish physicist Niels Bohr's Copenhagen interpretation. The author introduces us to the many brave researchers whose quest for truth led to challenge Bohr's status quo. A gripping story of the pursuit for scientific truth, what ever the cost. 370 pages. Basic. Pub. at $32.00

6718671 CLASSICAL ELECTROMAGNETISM, SECOND EDITION. By Jerrold Franklin. This text advances from the basic laws of electricity and magnetism to classical electromagnetism in a quantum world. Suitable for first year graduate students in physics, who have taken an undergraduate course in electromagnetism, it focuses on core concepts and related aspects of math and physics. 639 pages. Dover. 6½x10. Paperbound. Pub. at $32.95

5813972 NOW: The Physics of Time. By Richard A. Muller. The enigmatic concept of "now" has bedeviled philosophers, priests, and modern-day physicists. Here, experimental physicist Richard A. Muller addresses the confounding principle, but he does more than poke holes in past and present theories in his own revolutionary theory that makes testable predictions. 364 pages. Norton. Pub. at $27.95

6974856 NOW: The Physics of Time. By Richard A. Muller. You are reading the word "now" right now. But what does that mean? "Now" has bedeviled philosophers, priests, and modern-day physicists from Augustine to Einstein and beyond. Muller presents a remarkably clear exploration of relativity, entropy, entanglement, the Big Bang, and more, setting the stage for his own revolutionary theory of time. Photos. 364 pages. Norton. Paperback. Pub. at $16.95

6987150 WHEN EINSTEIN WALKED WITH GODEL: Excursions to the Edge of Thought. By Jim Holt. Did Einstein believe that his universe is infinite? Why do mirrors reverse left and right but not up and down? In this scintillating collection of essays, Holt explores the human mind, the cosmos, and the thinkers who have tried to encompass it. Holt adds a personal insight to the former. 368 pages. FSG. Pub. at $28.00

6714116 FUNDAMENTALS OF THE THEORY OF METALS. By A.A. Abrikosov. Republication of the 1988 edition. This comprehensive and well-organized text, written by the Danish physicist Niels Bohr's Copenhagen interpretation. The author introduces us to the many brave researchers whose quest for truth led to challenge Bohr's status quo. A gripping story of the pursuit for scientific truth, whatever the cost. 370 pages. Basic. Pub. at $32.00

6928723 THE EQUATIONS OF LIFE: How Physics Shapes Evolution. By Charles S. Cockell. A biologist argues in this fascinating examination, that the Lamarckian and narrow view of evolution is a dead end. Despite the astounding diversity of living things on the planet, evolution's outcomes are predictable at every level of life's structure, from chromosomes all the way up to complex organisms that are made. 337 pages. Basic. Pub. at $32.00

Lives & Works of Philosophers

- [6910289] CRITIQUE OF PURE REASON. By Immanuel Kant. The German philosopher argues that human knowledge is limited by the capacity for perception. He attempts a logical designation of two varieties of knowledge: a posteriori, knowledge acquired through experience, and a priori knowledge not derived through experience. Originally published in 1781, it is a cornerstone of Western philosophy. 480 pages. Dover. Paperbound. Pub. at $13.00. $4.95
- [6926312] THE PHILOSOPHICAL LIFE. By James Miller. Before the good life was reduced to a battle of Prozac, it was philosophers who offered answers to the fundamental questions about who we are, what we should do, and how to live well. In this volume, Miller returns to this vibrant tradition with short and spirited biographies of twelve famous thinkers from Socrates to Nietzsche. Photos. 422 pages. Oneworld. Paperbound Import. LIMITED QUANTITY
- [6854839] PONDERINGS II-VI: Black Notebooks 1931-1938. By Martin Heidegger. The five notebooks in this volume were written between 1931 and 1938 and thus chronicle Heidegger’s year as Rector of the University of Freiburg during the Nazi era. These challenging and fascinating entries shed light on his philosophical development. 388 pages. InUP. Pub. at $95.00. SOLD OUT

In recalling its story, he shows the human consequences of one of America's biggest political issues, and why it's so hard in the 21st century to re-create a healthy, prosperous working class.
The Brooklyn Bridge is a remarkable engineering marvel. Completed in 1883, it was the longest suspension bridge in the world at the time of its construction. The bridge, designed by John A. Roebling, is a testament to the ingenuity of the 19th-century engineering community. The story of its construction is filled with both triumphs and tragedies. The accidental death of the bridge's designer, John A. Roebling, and the subsequent struggle to complete the bridge due to his wife’s paralysis are well-documented. The bridge, however, stands as a symbol of perseverance and the power of human ingenuity. It is a vital part of New York City’s architectural heritage and a popular tourist attraction.

"What are the underlying mechanisms of curiosity and exploration?", takes us on his journey to finding out the answers to these questions.

Livio, being intrigued by the questions "What triggers curiosity?" and "What are the benefits of curiosity?" sets out to explore the answers. He delves into the neuroscience and physics of curiosity, examining how it affects our lives. Curiosity, he argues, is a powerful force that drives human exploration and innovation. He discusses the role of curiosity in scientific discovery and creativity, and how it can lead to groundbreaking ideas.

The book is divided into several parts, each focusing on different aspects of curiosity. Part one explores the history and evolution of curiosity, tracing its roots back to ancient times. Part two examines the biological and neurological basis of curiosity, using the latest research to explain how our brains are programmed to seek out new experiences. Part three looks at the benefits of curiosity, discussing how it can lead to better decision-making, enhanced creativity, and improved well-being.

Livio also addresses the dark side of curiosity, discussing the risks of over-curiosity, such as the dangers of online predators and the potential for curiosity to lead to harmful behaviors. Throughout the book, he emphasizes the importance of balancing curiosity with common sense and judgment.

Overall, this book is a fascinating exploration of one of our most powerful and mysterious emotions. It is well-researched and engagingly written, and will be of interest to anyone who wants to learn more about the nature and impact of curiosity.
