- ★3719391 THE WORLD IN A GRAIN: The Story of Sun and How It Handled Civilization. By David Beiser. The author takes readers on a journey across the globe to explain why sand is so crucial to modern life. Readers encounter world-changing innovators, island building entrepreneurs, desert fighters, and murderous sand pirates. The result is a story that’s both entertaining and eye opening, with fascinating details and compelling characters. 296 pages. Riverhead. Paperback. Pub. at $17.00 $12.95
- ★3751341 ENDLESS NOVELTIES OF EXTRAORDINARY INTEREST: The Voyage of H.M.S. Challenger and the Birth of Modern Oceanography. By Doug MacEachin. In this lively story of discovery, hardships, and humor, the author examines the work of the H.M.S. Challenger’s expedition scientists, especially the naturalist Henry Moseley, who cataloged the flora and fauna of the islands the ship visited, and the legacy of John Murray, considered the father of modern oceanography. Illus. 257 pages. Yale. Pub. at $30.00 $24.95
- Blu-ray 2906678 HOW THE EARTH WAS MADE: The Complete Season One. New Video. $11.95

-★3722461 THE REAL COST OF FRACKING. By M. Bamberger & R. Oswald. The authors pull back the curtain on how this toxic process endangers the environment and harms people, pets, and livestock. Combining their expertise as a veterinarian and pharmacologist, they show how contamination at drilling sites translates into ill health and heartbeat for families and their animals. 230 pages. Beacon. Paperback. Pub. at $18.00 $9.95
- 2930978 TIPPING POINT FOR PLANET EARTH: How Close Are We to the Edge? By A.D. Barnosky & E.A. Hadly. What happens when vast population overgrowth endangers the world’s food supplies? Or our water, energy needs, climate, and environment? What happens if some or all of these become endangered at once? We still have the chance to avoid the tipping point, but this window of opportunity will shut within 20 to 24 years. St. Martin’s. Pub. at $25.99 $9.95
- Blu-ray 6572456 SIX DEGREES COULD CHANGE THE WORLD. By the year 2100, many scientists believe that the Earth’s average temperature could rise by as much as six degrees Celsius. In this investigation, National Geographic leads a degree-by-degree journey to explore what each rising degree could mean for the future of our planet and family. Narrated by Alec Baldwin. English SDH. 90 minutes. Warner Home Video. $3.95
- 302802X PLOWED UNDER: Agriculture and Environment in the Palouse. By Andrew P. Duval. Duval describes the transformation of the Palouse region of Washington and Idaho from land thought unsusitable and unproductive to a wealth-generating agricultural paradise, weighing the consequences of what this progress has wrought. Duffin argues for a candid look at the land, its people, their decisions, and the repercussions of those decisions. 16 pages of photos. 240 pages. UMP Press. Pub. at $35.00 $9.95
- 2930919 WHO KILLED THE WATER GOES: Life and Death Along the Colorado River. By David Owen. The story Owen tells in this volume is crucial to our future: how a patchwork of engineering marvels, byantine legal and institutional frameworks, and neighboring cooperation enables life to flourish in the desert and the disastrous consequences we face when any part of this tenuous system fails. 274 pages. Riverhead. Pub. at $28.00 $9.95

The page contains a mix of text and images, but the content is not clearly visible due to the image quality. It appears to be a page from a book or catalog, possibly related to nature, wildlife, or conservation. The text is not legible enough to transcribe accurately. The layout suggests that it might be a page from a catalog listing various books on natural history, wildlife, and possibly biographies or guides. The page includes sections on Marine Mammals, Fish & Reptiles, and Horses & Horsemanship. The text is fragmented and not fully legible, making it difficult to extract coherent information. The page also includes a section labeled “SOLDOUT” which might indicate some product availability information. Overall, the page seems to be a catalogue or catalog page, possibly from an online retailer or bookstore.
