ASTRONOMY, SPACE TRAVEL & COSMOLOGY

A SPACE TRAVELER'S GUIDE TO THE SOLAR SYSTEM by Mark Thompson. Have you ever dreamed of being an astronaut, traveling through the universe? On this epic voyage of discovery, astronomer Mark Thompson takes you on that journey. From how to prepare for takeoff and the experience of leaving Earth’s atmosphere, to the reality of living in the confines of a spacecraft, this is an adventure like no other. 258 pages. Pegasus. Paperbound. Pub. at $16.95

STARMUS: 50 Years of Man in Space Ed. by Garik Israelian et al. Neil Armstrong, Buzz Aldrin, Bill Anders, Yuri Baturin, and others tell their personal stories about the first space walk, the lunar landing, the heroic recovery of Apollo 13 and much more. A thrilling celebration of a critical moment in human history that captures our first steps into space and ultimately take us. Fully illus. in color. 224 pages. Shelter Harbor. 9½x11¼. Pub. at $40.00

WAVES PASSING IN THE NIGHT: Walter Murch in the Land of the Astrophysicists by Lawrence Weschler. Renowned film editor Walter Murch’s passion is astrophysics, in particular the rehabilitation of Titus-Bode, a long-discredited 18th-century theory about the patterns by which planets and moons array themselves in gravitational systems across the universe. A consummate outsider, Murch has made advances that even some professional astrophysicists find intriguing. Well illus. 166 pages. Bloomsbury. Pub. at $25.00

ASTRONOMY MAN UAL: The Practical Guide to the Night Sky by Jane A. Green. Explores the Sun, the Solar System, and the observable Universe and gives a brief history of astronomy. Includes lists of useful resources, simple star maps, a moon map and a full glossary. Fully illus. in color. 208 pages. Haynes. 8¼x10½. Pub. at $21.95

GOLDLOCKS AND THE WATER BEARS by Louisa Preston. What might life look like on other worlds? Preston gives us a tale of the origins and evolution of life on Earth, and the quest to find it on other planets, on moons, in other galaxies, and throughout the Universe. Illus. 288 pages. Bloomsbury. Pub. at $37.00

STARGAZING: The Mobius Strip By Clifford A. Pickover. Lavishly illustrated, this volume is an infinite fountain of strange and wondrous forms that can help explain how mathematics has permeated every field of scientific endeavor. Following the tortuous path of the Mobius strip, we learn how mathematics has changed the way we understand the cosmos. 244 pages. Basic. Paperbound. Pub. at $16.99

OWNERS' WORKSHOP MANUAL: ASTRONAUT–1961 ONWARDS

ASTRONAUTRY: How the World Works: From Plotting the Stars to Pulsars and Black Holes By Anne Rooney. An accessible account of discoveries from the times of Paleolithic star-gazers to current space missions that shows how we have come to know so much about the universe. Since the invention of the telescope, the wonders of space have multiplied ever since, puzzling and enthralling us. Well illus. in color. 208 pages. Sirius. Pub. at $12.99

A DICTIONARY OF MODERN STAR NAMES, SECOND REVISED EDITION By P. Kunzitsch & T. Smart. The names of the stars have come to us from many ancient civilizations. This guide offers a captivating tour of our astronomical heritage while providing commentary on the origins of 254 stellar names. 66 pages. Sky & Telescope. Paperbound. Pub. at $12.95

A DICTIO NARY OF MODERN ST AR NAMES, SE COND REVISED EDITION

THE MOBIUS STRIP: Dr. August Mobius’s Perspektive on the Wonders of the World. This planetary photo tour provides a breathtakingly beautiful perspective on the wonders of the world. 8½x11. Pub. at $26.00

THE HUNT FOR VULCAN by Thomas Levenson. For more than 50 years, the world’s top scientists searched for the “missing” planet Vulcan, whose existence was mandated by Isaac Newton’s theories of gravity. Now, that all but forgotten quest for the planet that never existed unfolds in this captivating work of science history. Illus. 229 pages. Random. Paperbound. Pub. at $16.00

IN THE SHADOW OF THE MOON: The Science, Magic, and Mystery of Solar Eclipses By Anthony Aveni. Explains the history and culture surrounding solar eclipses from prehistoric Stonehenge to Babylonian creation myths, to a confirmation of Einstein’s theory of general relativity, to a spectacle that left New Yorkers in the moon’s shadow, to future eclipses. Aveni’s account of astronomy’s most storied phenomenon will enthral anyone who has looked up at the sky with wonder. Illus. 312 pages. Yale. Pub. at $28.00

POWERED PARACHUTE FLYING HANDBOOK By the Federal Aviation Administration. Offers everything you need to know about powered parachuting today, the aerodynamics of flight; what types of engines are used in power parachuting; preflight checklists; basic flight maneuvers; and so much more. Whether novice or experienced, there is a wealth of information for anyone interested in power parachuting. Color illus. Skyhorse. 8½x11. Paperbound. Pub. at $24.95

CONCORDE

DICTIO NARY OF MODERN ST AR NAMES, SECOND REVISED EDITION

THE DASSAULT ADVENTURE: A First Century of Aviation This lavishly illustrated volume tells the story of how, starting with a wooden propeller designed during the First World War, a world-class aerospace company with expertise in aeronautics took flight, and is now celebrating its hundredth anniversary. 128 pages. Abrams. 15x11¼. Pub. at $37.50

Arms & Airplanes

RUSSIAN AIRLINERS OUTSIDE RUSSIA By D. Komissarov & Y. Gordon. Some 400 color photographs, with extended and informative captions, form a comprehensive guide to the changing usage of Russian airliners in the post-Soviet era. Russian aircraft remain an important part of the ad hoc freight charter scene and dominate niche markets like the carriage of oversized cargo. 160 pages. Midland Publishing. 8¼x11. Paperback. At $36.95.

Airplanes & Airlines

HIGHER: 100 Years of Boeing By Russ Banham. Tells the story of the people and products that built a company whose name is synonymous with flight around the world, and takes a peek into what tomorrow may bring. Fully illus., some color. 192 pages. Chronicle. 12x1x10. At $55.00.

ARRIVAL OF THE FITTEST: Solving Evolution's Greatest Puzzle By Andreas Wagner. Reveals the answer to a long-lived question at the center of Darwin's natural selection–how the adaptations responsible for nature's creative marvels even arise in the first place. Using cutting edge research, Wagner reveals that adaptations are not just driven by chance, but by a set of laws that allow nature to discover new molecules and mechanisms. 291 pages. Oneworld. At $19.95.

UNDENIABLE: How Biology Confirms Our Intuition That Life Is Designed By Douglas Axe. In this engaging study, Axe argues that the key to understanding our origin is the “design intuition”–the innate belief held by all humans that tasks we would need knowledge to accomplish can be accomplished only by someone who has that knowledge. He dismantles the belief that Darwin’s theory of evolution is indisputably true. 298 pages. HarperOne. At $16.95.

HOW TO READ DARWIN By Mark Ridley. Ridley gives an accessible primer to reading and understanding Charles Darwin’s work. He concentrates primarily on the scientist’s two most important books, The Voyage of the Beagle and On the Origin of Species. 117 pages. Penguin. Paperback. At $11.00.

Colorful graphics and easy to understand explanations make these food facts fun and accessible. Well illus. in color. 143 pages. Ulysses. Paperbound. Pub. at $15.95

HOW TO TEACH QUANTUM PHYSICS TO YOUR DOG by Chad Orzel. In this entertaining volume, Orzel explains the key theories of quantum physics, taking his dog Emmy’s anarchic behavior as a starting point. From quarks and gluons to Heisenberg’s uncertainty principles, he unlocks the secrets of the universe. Illus. 241 pages. Scribner. Paperbound. Pub. at $16.00

Chemistry & Physics

THE LOST ELEMENTS by Marco Fontani et al. When the Periodic Table of Elements took shape in the 19th century, it became clear that it contained many gaps and omissions. These undiscovered elements initiated a rush to fill the blanks, including countless false discoveries, retractions, and dead-ends. Collected here are these most notable examples of scientific folly. 531 pages. Oxford. Pub. at $39.95

ALONE TOGETHER: Why We Expect More from Technology and Less from Each Other by Sherry Turkle. The result of a fifteen-year exploration of our lives on the digital terrain, Turkle argues in this text that the relentless connections online leads to a new solitude. Based on hundreds of interviews she describes the new and unsettling relationships between friends, lovers, parents, and children.

WHEN THE PERIODIC TABLE OF ELEMENTS TOOK SHAPE by Christopher Kardaleff. By 1869, chemists were aware of a dizzying array of elements, but it was unclear how they related. It would take more than a decade of experiments and arguments to fill in the periodic table.

Social Science

SEX SCANDAL: The Drive to Abolish Male and Female by Ashley McGuire. Packed with news-breaking interviews, shocking examples, and “inconvenient” facts that everyone needs to read. McGuire explains why “gender” insanity is not something we can just ignore and hope will fade away. We need to refute it now—while cold, facts before it does any more damage. 272 pages. Regney. Pub. at $27.99

WHISPER OF FEAR: The True Story of the Woman Who Wrote the Law on Stalking by B. Saunders. B. Saunders has made a career of battling stalking. Now the woman who wrote the law on stalking shares pivotal stories from her career. 16 photos. 306 pages. Berkley. Paperbound. Pub. at $7.99

THE MOST GOOD YOU CAN DO by Peter Singer. Effective altruism is built upon the simple but profoundly unsettling idea that living a fully ethical life involves the most good you can do. Singer introduces us to remarkable people who are restructuring their lives in accordance with these ideas, and how living altruistically often leads to greater fulfillment than living for oneself. 211 pages.
★ THE BROKEN LADDER: How Inequality Affects the Way We Think, Live, and Die By Keith Payne. Examines how inequality divides us not just economically, but also how it has profound consequences for how we think, how we respond to stress, how our immune systems function, and even how we view moral concepts such as justice and fairness. 246 pages. Penguin. Paperbound. Pub. at $17.00

★ THE SECOND SEX By Simone de Beauvoir. Newly translated and unabridged in English for the first time. Simone de Beauvoir’s masterwork is a powerful analysis of the Western notion of “woman,” and a groundbreaking exploration of inequality. Vital and groundbreaking, the author’s pioneering and impressive text remains as pertinent today as it was sixty years ago. 800 pages. Vintage. Paperback. Pub. at $18.00

★ THE KOREAN MIND: Understanding Contemporary Korean Culture By Boye Lafayette De Mente. Examines the meaning and cultural context of the most important “code words” or concepts that are fundamental to the Korean language and culture. Their significance goes much deeper than their literal translations. They are the key to truly understanding how Koreans think and by examining each concept the reader will gain insight into the character of the Korean people. 374 pages. Tuttle. Paperback. Pub. at $15.99

★ DEMOCRATIC BY DESIGN: How Carsharing, Co-ops, and Community Land Trusts Are Reinventing America By Gabriel Metcalf. Metcalf sketches out a strategy that starts with small-scale, living examples of alternatives that can scale up to widespread social transformation. Using examples like workers co-ops and community supported farms, he shows how alternative institutions can be the crucial spark for a brand new progressive movement. 246 pages. St. Martin’s. Pub. at $26.99

★ TERMS OF SERVICE: Social Media and the Price of Constant Connection By Jacob Silverman. Silverman crystallizes the current shift in communication and privacy that is affecting us more than we realize or can control. He brings into sharp focus the conflict we feel when deciding what to share and what to “like” and shows us how to free ourselves from social media’s grip. 430 pages. Harper. Pub. at $26.99

★ SECOND THAT EMOTION: How Decisions, Trends, & Movements Are Shaped By Jeremy D. Holstein. Provides an essential and entertaining glimpse into our decision-making processes and how passion-for an idea, a politician, or a brand—and emotion based illogical leaps drive our support for movements of all kinds. Photos. 287 pages. Prometheus. Pub. at $25.00

★ NO FRIENDS BUT THE MOUNTAINS: Dispatches from the World’s Violent Highlands By Judith Matloff. An acclaimed war correspondent introduces us to the obscure, isolated, and often fraught communities that make their homes at punishingly high elevations. From South America to the Middle East to Kashmir, Matloff reminds us that the drugs, terrorism, and instability cascading down the mountainside affect us all, and proposes these people should be granted the autonomy to live as they wish. 253 pages. Basic. Pub. at $27.00

★ RISING TO THE CHALLENGE: My Leadership Journey By Carly Fiorina. Sharing the lessons she’s learned from both her successes and failures, Fiorina diagnoses the largest problem facing our country today: untapped potential. She provides a vision that reaches across the usual barriers of gender, race, income, and party affiliation to craft a message that appeals to a wide range of Americans, a message of hope. 198 pages. Sentinel. Pub. at $26.95

★ HONOR BOUND: How a Cultural Ideal Has Shaped the American Psyche By Ryan P. Brown. Integrates contemporary research, current events, and personal stories to explain how honor impacts nearly every aspect of people’s lives from spontaneous bar fights to romantic relationships, foreign policy decisions, and even how parents name their children. 214 pages. Oxford. Pub. at $29.95

★ THE SENTIENT MACHINE: The Coming Age of Artificial Intelligence By Amir Husain. A brilliant inventor and research scientist argues that we are on the cusp of writing our greatest creation myth with AI. In this fascinating examination, Husain addresses broad existential questions surrounding the coming of AI, and provides an inspiring vision of the great changes now nearly upon us. 226 pages. Scribner. Pub. at $17.00

★ YOU MAY ALSO LIKE: Taste in an Age of Endless Choice By Tom Vanderbilt. Comprehensively researched and insightful, Vanderbilt’s discussion is an intellectual journey that helps us understand how we perceive, judge, and appreciate the world around us and how our preferences and opinions are constantly being shaped by countless forces. 305 pages. Knopf. Pub. at $26.95

★ ANOTHER DAY IN THE DEATH OF AMERICA By Gary Young. On an average day in America there are statistically seven deaths of children and teenagers due to gun violence alone. Journalist Gary Young singles out one particular day to relate to us the stories of the children whose lives were lost due to guns-with-in that 24-hour span. 267 pages. Nation Books. Pub. at $25.99

★ MEN: Notes from an Ongoing Investigation By Laura Kipnis. Silencing through the usual cliches about the differences between the sexes, Kipnis mixes intellectual rigor and wit to give us a compelling survey of the affinities, jealousies, longings, and erotics that structure the female-male bond. 208 pages. Metropolitan. Pub. at $25.00

★ WHEN MEN BECOME GODS: Mormon Polygamist Warren Jeffs, His Cult of Fear, and the Women Who Fought Back By Stephen Singular. Casts a light on a dark corner of religious extremism as he reveals a group of fundamentalists operating in the present day USA, where teenage girls are kept in virtual bondage in the name of upholding the “sacred principle” of polygamy. Traces the rise of Warren Jeffs, who held sway over thousands of followers. Photos. 294 pages. St. Martin’s. Pub. at $24.95

★ WHEN THE GREAT MODERNISER: Chulalongkorn, Patron Saint of the Thai Middle Class By Irene Stengs. The influence of globalization since the 1980s has inspired a cult in Thailand which revolves around King Chulalongkorn the Great (1868-1910) who reworked the idea of Buddhist kingship, creating a new foundation for Thai identity which is an amalgamation of popular religion, Buddhist kingship, nationalism, and material culture. Color photos. 316 pages. UWaP. Paperbound. Pub. at $35.00

★ WOMEN’S VOICES FROM WEST AFRICA: An Anthology of Songs from the Sahel Ed. by T.A. Hale & A.C. Srdijkou.
